

1898

DAY BOOK

318

Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in North Pacific Ocean Passage from San Francisco to Fox Islands

Tuesday March 27th 1894

At four thirty P.M. took the anchor and towed out to sea. Log left us at six P.M. Made sail and stood out to S.W. eight P.M. Calm. 27 men all told nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday March 28th

Throughout the day light Westerley wind heading off to S.W. employed stowing anchors and straightening things up generally, nothing further of note this day.

Thursday March 29th

Light Southerley wind Thick foggy and rainy. Steering S.W. by W and W.S.W. employed washing Boats and scraping Cars and Quarts. nothing further of note this day.

Friday March 30th

The wind shifted to W.W. and freshened up fresh, Steering S.W. Employed in general Ships duty.

Saturday March 31st

Throughout the day light variable winds and Calms. employed dealing Slops. also got out Bread and Flour a Steamer in sight going to the Dr. C. nothing further of note this day.

1894. Log of Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage

Sunday April 1st

Begins with light breeze from Westward Course when heading N. S. W. Last part hauled to N. N. W. nothing further of note this day Lat 36.03 N. Long 128.45 W.

Monday April 2nd

Throughout the day fine weather with light Easterly and N. E. wind. employed making new foot Ropes for Jib Boom and new jacob ladders. and doing other small jobs
nothing further of note this day.
Lat 36.04 N Long 130.18 W.

Tuesday April 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather with light northerly breeze Course W.
Employed abse hauling Blocks and repairing Boat. nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday April 4

Throughout the day fine weather.
light Westerly and N. W. wind Employed setting up Rigging. nothing
further of note this day
Lat 35.53 N 133.38 W.

Thursday April 5th

Throughout the day fine weather. N. wind steering N. N. W. employed painting Boats and setting up Top Mast rigging. two sails in sight going to the N. W. nothing further of note this day.
Lat 36.9 N Long 132.58 W.

Master

Passage from San Francisco to Fox Islands & Caffin

Friday April 6th

The wind breezed up strong from the Southward in light Quills and a reef in main sail steering N. N. W. This P.M. died out Calm and came in foggy, nothing further of note this day.

Saturday April 7th

Throughout the day thick and foggy fair A.M. breezed up from Southward steering N by E and N. N. W. Employed putting up Weather Cloths nothing further of note this day.

Sunday April 8th

Begins with thick foggy weather southerly wind. Seven A.M. cleared up all Quills out steering N and N by E. This P.M. breezed up fresh took in stay sail

Lat 40° 48' N Long 137° 50' W

Monday April 9th

The wind hatted to the Westward, Seven A.M. tacked and headed to Southward Employed in general Ships duty

Lat 41° 52' N Long 139° 36' W

1894 Schooner Rosario passage from San Francisco to

Tuesday April 10th

Begins with Strong Westerley wind heading N.W. by S. middle part wind hauled to the Westward and died out to a very light breeze turning N.E. by N. employed in general ship's duty.

Lat 40.40 N Long 140.56 W.

Wednesday April 11th

The wind hauled to the Southward and breezed up to a whole sail breeze turning N.E. by N. employed lashing the cutting pennants aloft nothing further of note this day.

Lat 42.00 N Long 143.58 W.

Thursday April 12th

Came in thick and foggy with Southerley wind steering N by S and N. twelve in cleared up wind hauled to S.W. nothing further of note this day.

Lat 41.40 N Long 146.10 W

Friday April 13th

Throughout the day fine weather light wind from N to S.W. employed painting tops of the masts and doing other small jobs, nothing further of note this day.

Lat 43.26 N Long 148.57 W.

to Fort Islands Edwin Coffin Master

Saturday April 14th
Throughout the day heavy foggy weather with light S.W. and W.S.W. wind heading on the Northward tack employed scraping spars, nothing further of note this day.

Sunday April 15th
Begins with fresh breeze from S.W. heading on the Northward tack. This P.M. in light sails and one reef in main sail, nothing
further of note this day.

Lat 44° 26' N Lat 149° 45' W.
Monday April 16th
Begins with strong breeze wind hauled to the Westward eight A.M. wore ship and stood on Southern tack this P.M. wind died out to a Calm, heavy swell, running lowered the sails down on deck nothing further of note this day.

Lat 45° 15' N 151° 36' W.
Tuesday April 17th
The wind breezed up from S.S.W. heading N by S and came in rainy. This P.M. hauled to the westward and cleared up, nothing further
of note this day.

Wednesday April 18th
The wind hauled to N.W. and N.N.W. and blew a gale this P.M. wore her two under double reef fore sail, five P.M. moderated seven P.M. let double reef main sail and stay sail nothing further of note this day.

Lat 45° 52' N Long 153° 26' W.

1894 Schooner Rosario Passage from San Francisco

Thursday April 19th

Throughout the day fresh breezes from N to N.W. stood on Southern tack until two P.M. then tacked to the Northward nothing further of note this day

Lat 45.14 N Long 155.26 W,

Friday April 20th

The wind breezed up from the Southward and blew a fresh gale double reefed Fore sail and main sail and took in jib This P.M. moderated made some sail nothing further of note this day.

Saturday April 21st

The wind hauled to N.W. and breezed up strong heading on the Southern tack this P.M. more moderate nothing further of note this day.

Lat 46.43 N Long 158.25 W,

Sunday April 22nd

Begins with light N.W. wind heading N.W. and S.W. by N. twelve M wind hauled to N.W. and S.W. turning West nothing further of note this day.

Lat 46.08 N Long 159.25 W,

to Fox Islands Edwin Coffin Master,

Monday April 23rd

Sautherley wind rain and fog steering West by Compass This A.M. took in Fly Jib and put one reef in main sail. nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday April 24th

The wind hauled to the Westward and breezed up to a fresh gale this P.M. double reefed Fore sail and main sail and took in the Jib. day Clouds squally.

Lat 48.00 N Long 164.00 W,

Wednesday April 25th

Begins with fresh breeze from the Westward. This P.M. wind hauled to the Southward all sail out steering West by Compass employed breaking out Flour. Also gave out Skin plants to the crew six P.M. came in rain.

Lat 48.30 N Long 164.00 W,

Thursday April 26th

Strong Sautherley gale with rain and fog steering N very low barometer this P.M. moderated and wind hauled to N.W. and blew a heavy gale here too under double reef Fore sail.

894 Schooner Rosario Passage from San Francisco To

Friday April 19th

Began with heavy gale from N.W. Lay in to under double reef Fore Sail. This A.M. moderated set Fore stay Sail and double reef Main Sail.

Lat 49. 19 N Long 166. 31 W

Saturday April 20th

Spent the day good weather with Westerley wind. worked to the windward. Employed repairing Top and Ring tail Top Sail. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday April 21st

Began with fresh breeze from S.W. steering N.W. Wind increased four A.M. in light sails. This P.M. blew a fresh Gale steered off N.W. Took in jibs and main sail four P.M. double reefed Fore Sail nothing further of note this day.

Lat 50. 10 N Long 170. 06 W

Monday April 22nd

Began with a gale of wind from S.W. running under double reef Fore Sail at noon. however, the wind moderated at four A.M. and died out. Calm took in all sail. heavy swell rolling heavy. This P.M. heaved up from N.E. made sail. stood on starboard tack heading N.W. nothing further of note this day.

For Islands Edwin Coffin Master.

Tuesday May 1st

Begins with light N.E. wind turning N.W. by N. day light saw the land Island of Manchu passed through the 173°.00 passage this A.M. into the Bering Sea, wind halled to S.E. steering N.W. by N. and N.W. by N. Strong breeze last part double reefed Fore Sail and Bonnet and Square Sail came in rainy. This A.M. sent frame to Crows nest aloft. and put Craft in the Boats nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday May 2nd

Running strong breeze from S.W. steering N.W. and N.W. by N. Short rest to Sea running, double reef main sail single reef Fore Sail and Jib out. nothing further of note this day.

Lat 54.59 N Long 172.54 W.

Thursday May 3rd

Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from S.W. to N.W. by N. lying to under double reef Fore sail until five P.M. then set Fore Stay Sail

Lat 56.30 N Long 174.18 W.

Friday May 4th

Throughout the day blowing fresh gale from N.W. this A.M. on Southern tack this P.M. on Northern tack James Clemons sick and off duty. nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario Passage from Fort Islands to the

Saturday May 5th

The wind moderated and fell light N.W. wind. working to the windward. Employed cutting lines and getting boats put Canvas on Crows nest and done other small jobs nothing further of note this day.

Lat 57.23 N Long 174.18 W.

Sunday May 6th

Throughout the day strong breeze from N.W. to N.E. Breeze and squally very cold. Shortened sail to keep from icing up. Standing on the Western tack nothing further of note this day.

Lat 58.19 N Long 176.23 W

Monday May 7th

Throughout the day fresh breeze from the Northwest standing on the Western Tack.

Lat 58.30 N Long 178.33 W.

Tuesday May 8th

Throughout the day fine weather with light Westerly wind. This P.M. made the Ice, stood up to it and tacked. and worked to the Westward along the Ice. employed putting out cutting stags and doing other small jobs. Frank Peck sick and off duty.

Lat 59.14 N Long 179.41 W.

Ice and into the Arctic Ocean. Edwin Coffin Master

Wednesday May 9th
The wind breezed up from the Westward and made strong breezes working along the Ice to the Westward. Ice in sight most of the day. Ice running East and West. nothing further
of note this day

Lat 60. 22 N.

Thursday May 10th
Throughout the day fresh breezes from the Westward working to the Westward along the Ice. employed in general ships duty
nothing further of note this day.

Lat 60. 45 N 178. 19 E.

Friday May 11th
Throughout the day fine weather first part wind light from S.W. This P.M. went into the Ice turning to the N.W. which hauled to the Eastward very light. employed Coiling Tow Line into a Cask
nothing further of note this day.

Lat 61. 22 N Long 179. 51 E

Saturday May 12th
Begins with fresh breezes from the Eastward Seven A.M. Came out of the Ice into clear water turned North ten A.M. saw Cape Haven bearing N. N. E. This P.M. breezed on strong double reef. Four Sail and main sail. very little ice to be seen. I took in under the land to make good weather of it. nothing further of note this day. Frank Peck returned to duty.

894 Schooner Rosario in the Bering Sea Cruising for

Sunday May 13th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from N.E. layed close under the Canal and made good weather of it. double reef Fore Sail and main Sail. and stay Sail and nothing further of note this day.

Monday May 14th

Throughout the day lower weather laying under the lee of Cape Mauerer. natives came off got a few skins. this P.M. stood out to sea finding bad weather run back under the Cape again. saw one Bark to the windward under short sail. day closes with N.E. wind

Tuesday May 15th

Throughout the day fresh gale from N.E. this A.M. stood out to sea. wind increased up and had it rugged. Could make but little working to the windward so run in under Cape Mauerer for a few. saw one Bark working to windward under short sail nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday May 16th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy gale from N.E. to N. laying under short Sail. under the lee of Cape Mauerer James Clemons returned to duty

Whales Edwin Coffin Master,

Thursday May 17th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from N.E. with part thick and snowey. Lying under the lee of Cape Mueren nothing further of note this day.

Friday May 18th

Throughout the day thick snowey weather fresh breeze from N.E. to E. Stove out to the S.E. made the ice could not see but short distance so stove in under the land again nothing further of note this day.

Saturday May 19th

Begins with thick snowey weather with N.E. this A.M. Cleared up some. worked to the N.E. all day between strips of ice. two P.M. shortened sail and layed to. thus ends the day.

Sunday May 20th

Throughout the day thick hazy weather with N.E. working to the windward under easy sail. This A.M. saw a whale lowered the boats but to no purpose. did not see him after the boats went down. This P.M. tried up to the ice nothing further
of note this day.

Monday May 21st

Begins with thick snowey weather with N.E. This A.M. saw two whales lowered one boat but did not see them again. This P.M. a little clearer let go from the ice made sail and worked to the North and East as far as we could go and layed to under short sail
nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario working through the Ice in the

Tuesday May 22nd

Begins with thick snowy weather wind N.E. to N.W.E. Saw Steamer W. Bayles Captain went on board for a while also saw John & Knitroak Triton and Andrew Hicks. This P.M. Cleared up and had fine weather working to the North and east as much as possible. Thawed. Some Ice nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday May 23rd

Throughout the day fine weather with fine breeze from N.E. to E.N.E. working to the windward. Three sails in sight employed breaking out and shifting water getting trade handy. nothing further of note this day.

Lat 68. 35 Long. 78. 16 W.

Thursday May 24th

Begins with hazy weather and light rain squalls made the Ice and shortened sail four A.M. Made Sule and worked to the Eastward. Twelve M. Stove to the North through large strips of Ice. four P.M. Saw the land bearing N.W.E. day clear Clear working in to the land one sail in sight this A.M. nothing further of note this day.

Friday May 25th

Throughout the day fine weather light variable winds. Lying under Cape Phoring trading with the natives got a number of deer skins. Broke out forward of main hatch for Trade Flour. Sent the chains and got the Anchors off the bow. nothing further of note this day.

Bering Sea to the Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Saturday May 27th

Throughout the day fine weather wind light from N.E. in the morning and fresh breeze this P.M. five thirty A.M. saw Whales lowered the Boats L.D. & D.B. both struck at the same time took the Whales along side. Cuck Anchored twenty seven fathoms of water. Cut them in Cleared away the heads and got under way. Cuck set the watch nothing further of note this day. Thirty five miles West of Cape Bering.

Sunday May 28th

Blowing a gale from N.E. this A.M. Stowed on to the Ice and tied up. Scraped outside of Bone and stowed it away. and started the work to Bailing. H.M. Hemming Cabin Boy Sick and off duty. Cuck set off and got under way. nothing further of note this day.

Monday May 29th

Strong N.E. wind until one P.M. then moderate remainder of the day. finished Bailing six thirty A.M. Cleared up and made sail and stowed to the Eastward. off Cape Bering saw a Whale lowered the Boats but to no purpose. off Cape Agassiz natives came off and done some trading for skins nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the Bering Sea

Tuesday May 29th

The wind shifted to S.E. first Thick and snowing nine A.M. Cleared up. worked up to Flower Bay some natives came off. Saw Steamer Alexander also one sealing Bark with Roats down. at ten P.M. saw a Whale lowered the Roats but to no purpose. nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday May 30th

Throughout the day fine weather with light breeze from N.E. Steved in to Indian Point and Anchored Broke out a lot of B.L. and stowed down what oil we had. A number of natives on board. Steamers Beluga and Alexander anchored here and went out this P.M. one Bark in sight off Chors. W. H. Learning returned to duty. Nothing further of note this day.

Indian Point.

Thursday 31st

Throughout the day fine weather. first part light Air from North. Set up head stays and sent head sails over. Eleven A.M. took the anchor and looked to the North. Took Starboard Boat in to repair nothing further of note this day.

Off Glover Bay Edwin Coffin Master.

Friday June 1st

Begins with fine weather and light S.W. and West wind turning to the North for St Lawrence Bay. Finished repairing Boat and put her out. Wind washed off ice and left. Stood in to South head of St Lawrence Bay done a little trading with the natives then turned to the North.

Saturday June 2nd

Throughout the day fine weather with fresh breezes from S.W. Stood in to the Diomedes and Anchored, saw several Steamers and one Bark. Some ice on the shores and some passing to the North.

Sunday June 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather light S.S.W. wind and calm twelve in ice came in took the anchor and towed the Schooner out clear with the boats light air sprung up made sail stood to the Eastward six P.M. Anchored again no wind, saw a number of Steamers and one Bark. This A.M. oiled the masts down. Nothing further of note this day.

Monday June 4th

The wind breezed up from S.W. Ice came down took the anchor and stood across to East Cape and Anchored under the lee of ground ice, thick and heavy most of the day. Six Steamers tied up to the ice here. Nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Trading Voyage in the Arctic

Tuesday June 5th

Throughout the day fine weather. Light breeze from N.W. sailing to an anchor off East Cape. Nothing further of note this day.

East Cape

Wednesday June 6th

Throughout the day fine weather with fresh breeze from N.W. Sailing to an anchor near East Cape under the lee of the Ice.

East Cape

Thursday June 7th

First and middle parts fine clear weather fresh breeze from N.W. Last part came in foggy, employed scratching down. Seven Steamers tied up to the Ice here. on Bark working up this way. to an anchor off

East Cape

Friday June 8th

Throughout the day thick foggy weather with light variable winds and calms. Light E. wind. Ice came in. and was obliged to take the anchor and work off shore. all the Steamers were obliged to come out. nothing further of note this day.

Saturday June 9th

Thick fog. Another by wind. stood in under the land at East Cape but could not anchor. Then stood to the Eastward for Diomedes. Some scattering ice. eight P.M. Calm and Anchored. Nothing further of note this day.

Urao Edmo Coffin Master.

Sunday June 10th

Rising with thick fog and calm eight A.M. Light breeze from N.E. took the anchor and steered to the South for Dimedles. This P.M. done some trading for Beets. Also broke out main Hatch to find Cask of Tobacco twelve P.M. Anchored South of East Cape strong breeze.

Monday June 11th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from N.W. eleven A.M. Ice came down on us. took the anchor made sail and worked in shore of it and anchored again. W^m Bayles and John & Winthrop went to the Southward nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday June 12th

The wind moderated nine A.M. took the anchor and ran to the Southward. Northerly wind saw the Brig Hidalgo. Seven thirty P.M. anchored off South Head of St. Lawrence Bay plenty of Ice in the Bay, nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday June 13th

Thick and foggy wind N.E. two A.M. took the anchor eight A.M. Steered off S. by W. and made sail seven P.M. came to Ice eleven fathoms of water had to work to the Eastward day close thick and foggy.

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Thursday June 14th

Throughout the day thick foggy weather. With S.E. wind worked off to the southward and at four P.M. Anchored off Indian Point. Three Barke Anchored here. This A.M. Saw a Whale lowered two Boats but did not see him again. Captain went on board Murren, nothing further of note this day.

Friday June 15th

Began with thick foggy weather fresh breeze from S.E. Middle part cleared up Ice came in took the Anchor and came down to Marcus Bay and anchored. John & Winthrop came in and anchored. Got Bone on deck and put it to soak. Seven P.M. foggy. Nothing further of note this day.

Saturday June 16th

Throughout the day fine weather. Light breeze from S.W. employed washing Bone. Finished at two thirty P.M. got out Bread and Beef Mr Rogers Third Officer Sick and off duty. Nothing further of note this day.

Sunday June 17th

Throughout the day fine weather. First part calm this P.M. light breeze from S.W. took the Anchor and started for St. Lawrence Island four ships in sight. dried our Bone and bundled it weight 8504 lbs. Came to ice at eight P.M. and out Calm and started off from ice

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master,

Monday June 18th

Throughout the day fine weather with light Southerly wind and Calms. At Seven P.M. Anchored in sixteen fathoms of water. Two Barks in sight. No Fine further of note this day.

Tuesday June 19th

The wind freshened to N.E. took the Anchor and started S by E for St Lawrence Island. Came to some ice. Nine A.M. Came in foggy. This P.M. Cleared up and started for the Island. Seven thirty Anchored under the lee of Sand Spit at St Lawrence, in eight fathoms of water. Thirty fathoms of Chain to the water,

St Lawrence Island

Wednesday June 20th

Begins with strong breeze from N.E. Thick foggy and rainy. Last part Moderated. Some natives on board trading Boots and Skins nothing further of note this day.

St Lawrence Island.

Thursday June 21st

Begins with thick foggy weather and N.E. fresh breeze. Through the day not doing much of any thing. In P.M. took the Anchor and started Westward.

St Lawrence Island

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Huling Voyage in the

Friday June 22nd

The wind hauled to S.W. started off from St. Lawrence Bay. Some scattering Ice employed scratching there at close of the day shorted sail and luffed to the wind.

Saturday June 23rd

Came in thick and foggy at five thirty A.M. Wind from S.W. at nine A.M. hauled over the wind on the Eastern tack for Port Clarence. Saw two ships this P.M. Cleared up stood to S.E. remainder of the day.

Sunday June 24th

Sailed in wind clearing to the S.E. six A.M. Came to Ice and wind died out. dropped small anchor. Seven thirty light air took the anchor and worked out of the Ice let up and saw four ships to an anchor. This P.M. Thick fog until four thirty then let up wind died out anchored again

Monday June 25th

Thick and foggy all the first part this P.M. let up saw three sails took the anchor and moved twice through the day. wind southerly. Scratched down the Log Masts.

Arctic Ocean Edwin L. Coffin Master.

Tuesday June 26th

Begins with thick foggy weather S. B. arrived Seven A.M. Cleared up laying to an anchor until Seven P.M. wind dropped up from Westward. Steered off to the Eastward saw a number of ships & an anchor washed the schooner off out side this P.M. gave her a coat of paint. Seven P.M.
Took the anchor and stood to the Eastward amid R. W. lights.

Wednesday June 27th

Wind S. W. foggy in the morning six thirty A.M.
Cleared up steered for Port Clarence and anchored under the Canal Spit at one P.M. four fathoms of water fifteen fathoms Chanc out. Nothing further of note this day.

Port Clarence.

Thursday June 28th

Begins with fine weather wind S. W. Seven A.M.
Took the anchor and went to the watering place. Started getting water and Coopering. Saw east part wind Southerly with light rain
nothing further of note this day.

Port Clarence

Friday June 29th

Begins with light squally wind and rain middle part wind hauled to the Northward Cleared up. Six P.M. finished getting water
Took the anchor and came to the Canal Spit and anchored four fathoms of water twenty fathoms Chanc out. Captain went on board of Jeanie for mail. Nothing further of note this day.

Port Clarence

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Saturday June 30th

Throughout the day fine weather wind to the Northward employed repairing Horn Loe Sails, nothing further of note this day.
Port Clarence.

Sunday July 1st

Throughout the day hazy weather with Southerly wind. nothing of note this day.
Port Clarence

Monday July 2nd

Throughout the day fine weather with fresh breeze from the Northward. Employed repairing Horn Sails. nothing further of note this day.
Port Clarence.

Tuesday July 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather Southerly
wind. Employed repairing Sails. Steamer Bear came in. An Officer boarded us this afternoon nothing further of note this day.
Port Clarence.

Wednesday July 4th

Began with hazy weather southerly wind middle part moderate last part wind hauled to the Northward. nothing further of note
this day.
Port Clarence

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Thursday July 5th

Begins with light breeze from N.E.E.
Nine am saw a fresh gale dropped the second anchor and gave her bows Chain. nothing further of note this day.

Friday July 6th

The wind moderated and hauled to S.W. and S. took up Starboard Anchor. employed in general ships duty. Deer came from the watering place and anchored. nothing further of note
this day.

Saturday July 7th

Threw out fine weather fresh breeze from the Southward. employed in general ships duty

Port Clarence

Sunday July 8th

First part thick foggy weather & southerly wind. Middle part clear. Capt Robinson came on board. nothing further of note this day.

Port Clarence.

Monday July 9th

Begins with strong southerly wind six A.M. came in rain. This P.M. moderated & stopped raining shut in thick fog. nothing further of note this day

Port Clarence.

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the Arctic

Tuesday July 10th

Throughout the day Southerly wind rainy and foggy. ten A.M. took the anchor and stood over to Deer Station and anchored took ashore some small matter. then got under way and stood over to Gaulty Harbour. nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday July 11th

Began with strong Southerly wind and rain. eight A.M. held up. sent Boat in fishing, got three hundred salmon natives on board with fish to sell. ten A.M. took the anchor and stood to the Westward nothing further of note this day.

Thursday July 12th

11 A.M. wind came in thick anchored under the Point. seven A.M. cleared up took the anchor and stood out to sea. this P.M. breezed up strong from the North and came in thick and rainy stood in under the land and anchored. natives came off with some small trade.

Cecum Edwin Coffin Master

Friday July 13th

Begins with thick rainy weather strong breeze from N.W. At three P.M. took the anchor and stood out by Cape Prince of Wales wind halled to N.W. Rove off new Fore Sail, Mainyard Gibe and Mly Gibe which and Ringtail Sheet. & Thing of note this day,

Saturday July 14th

Begins with hazy rainy weather wind N.W. heading to the North all sail out employed in general ships duty. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday July 15th

Begins with light N.W. winds and Calms five A.M. came in foggy. This P.M., light Pantherley wind. Cleared up and Cape Thompson bearing N.W. & stood N.W. by W. nothing further of note this day.

Monday July 16th

The wind halled to the S.E. and breezed up strong steering N by S at nine A.M. anchored on the North side of Pt Hope blew strong all day. Saw a Steamer pass off shore steering to the North. a number of white men and natives came on board nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario in a Whaling voyage in the

Tuesday July 17th

Began with strong breeze from S.E. and showers of rain this P.M. wind moderated. This A.M. sent two keels of bone on board the Dickolene, also three bundles of bone, one piece of Ivory and three packages of skins from the Bark Rainier to be shipped to San Francisco. Received Bone and packages marked QD Schooner Bone two to eight bundles marked RD two bundles of Trade Bone marked EA and one marked CB. Nothing further of note this day.

to Hope

Wednesday July 18th

The wind S.E. moderated and had fine weather. nine A.M. got under way and steered off to the Northward. Nothing further of note this day.

Thursday July 19th

Throughout the day good weather wind S.E. Moved in to the Coal mine and anchored sent Boat on digging Coal. Capt Cogan and Capt Williams came on board. Nothing further of note this day. Coal mine

Friday July 20th

Strong breeze from S.E. Thick and came in rain. Employed coaling. Three thirty rained so hard called the Boat on board and rocked off. Triton and Lavinia went to sea, eight P.M. wind let go at nine breezed up and blew a gale from the South. Let go the second anchor and gave her more chain. Nothing further of note this day.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master,

Saturday July 21st

Begins with heavy gale from the Southward. Both Anchors down all the Port Chain out and twenty five fathoms of the Star board are out this P.M. more moderate six P.M. sent a Boat in to dig coal. Jim Kanacka sick and off duty. Nothing further of note this day.
Coal down

Sunday July 22nd

The wind moderated still from the Southward. Took up the second Anchor. took on board last Boat load of Coal this P.M. closed off the hole and five thirty P.M. took the Anchor made sail and steered off to the N.E. Along the land nothing further of note this day.

Monday July 23rd

Begins with hazy rainy weather. Easterly wind working to the north along between the Ice and the land. saw three ships off shore. five P.M. came to Ice to the north of Pt. Lay. took in sail and came to an anchor. Current running to the Southward. Number of natives came on board. Jim Kanacka returned to duty. Nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday July 24th

Throughout the day fine weather with variable winds and calms. Saw no sail off shore natives on board most of the day. Employed overhauling and fitting up the Boats.

Fifteen miles South of Jay Cape.

1894 Schooner Kasario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Wednesday July 25th

Throughout the day hazy and foggy weather wind variable from S to N. N. W. six P.M. took the anchor and stood off shore. Came in thick fog. working to the north.

Thursday July 26th

Began with hazy sunny weather wind from N. W. to E. N. W. middle part cleared up and had fine weather passed up by Blossom Shoal considerable ice on the shore day closed with light breeze working to the north.

Friday July 27th

Began with fine weather light northerly wind working to the northward some ice in shore clear water off shore. Off Wainwright point natives came on board done some trading 29 lbs of Rend. This P.M. wind to N. E. to N. N. E. foggy. working up the coast nothing further of note this day.

Saturday July 28th

Fog cleared up wind light sailed to the Eastward and Southward, middle and east part fresh breeze. Three thirty P.M. anchored off Cape Smyth between ground ice and the land in three fathoms of water. men from both stations came on board. Saw three ships anchored off Shooting Station and four off Pt Barrow.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Sunday July 29th

Throughout the day fine weather with Easterley and Easterley wind washed and huddled some Trade Bore and took it on shore 313 lbs. to be sent down by the Bear. Discharged Wm. Hemming the Cabin Boy. Sick with Consumption. To be sent down on the Bear. Four thirty took the anchor and came around Pt Barrow and worked East. Ullace Knowles Inermid and La Ninpha in sight. nothing further of note this day.

Monday July 30th

Throughout the day fine weather with light breeze from S to E working to the Eastward. Six Sail in sight working East. Nothing further of note this day. off Harris Bay.

Tuesday July 31st

Came in rainy and foggy wind light from the Westward. had to come to an anchor at six A.M. twelve thirty took the anchor and stood to the Eastward. Three P.M. wind died out and again saw six ships to the Westward of us. This P.M. natives came on board nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Aug 1st

Throughout the day fine weather Easterley wind Twelve thirty A.M. took the anchor and stood to the Eastward ten thirty Anchored off Return Reef in four fathoms of water. found the Jeaney and Handker here. and eight Steamers off in the Ice closed in. This P.M. eight sailing ships came in and Anchored. no going East just yet

Off Return Reef

1894 Summer Record on a Whaling Voyage in 1894

Thursday Aug 2nd

At first part thick and foggy wind to the North light. This P.M. cleared up. Six P.M. took the anchor and tried to go to the Eastward. inside of the sand spit, which died out and had to anchor again, nothing further of note this day.

Return Reef

Friday Aug 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the Northward. Two P.M. took the anchor and moved to the Eastward as far as we could go and came to an anchor again. Nothing further of note this day.

Return Reef

Saturday Aug 4th

Throughout the day thick hazy weather and rain Easterly wind. Trying to anchor off the East West end of Lyons Reef, nothing further of note this day.

Return Reef

Sunday Aug 5th

Easterly wind thick hazy weather. Seven A.M. saw the Bark Minnie Ashore with Horse and Man. Boats got under way and run down to her and anchored, and Captain went on board of her, got some provisions. Nothing further of note this day.

Crecto Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Monday Aug 6th

Thick and foggy most of the time. Light E Wind first part last part N.E. employed taking provisions from Rain Deer. Steamers all in sight. nothing further of note this day.
Return Reef.

Tuesday Aug 7th

Light southerly wind foggy Employed putting out davits for fourth Boat. Shifted George Ellis his Boatstever and three men to go the remainder of the voyage got some things to day from the Rain Deer, nothing
further of note this day.
Return Reef.

Wednesday Aug 8th

Throughout the day thick foggy weather
Easterly. ~~Weather~~ wind employed getting lumber from the Rain Deer to build a storages. Moved the Galley. and took care of small things nothing
further of note this day.
Return Reef.

Thursday Aug 9th

First part thick foggy weather Easterly wind middle part cleared up. All the steamers in sight. Cooper employed building a storages.
Took out five Cask and disposed of them to make room. and stowed all small stores in the place of them. Captain went off on board Bark Inten on business nothing further
of note this day.
Return Reef.

1894 Schooner Resario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Friday Aug 10th

Thick hazy weather and rainy Easterly wind. Seventeen ships in sight. Four P.M. Took the anchor and worked to the Eastward. Nine P.M. Anchored off Cross Island some ice passing.

Return Reef

Saturday Aug 11th

Came in thick and foggy Easterly wind. This P.M. Cleared up. All the ships in about the same position. Cooper employed building a storage in fine water of note this day.

Return Reef

Sunday Aug 12th

Throughout the day thick foggy wind N.E. to E. This P.M. Took the anchor and worked to the windward a short distance and anchored again. Cooper building a storage in fine water of note this day.

Return Reef

Monday Aug 13th

Throughout the day thick foggy weather wind N.E. to E. Laying to an anchor. moved several times for ice nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Aug 14th

Fog cleared and had fine weather strong N.E. wind. eight A.M. Took the anchor and worked to the Eastward inside of the Reef four P.M. anchored under the lee of Lyons Reef. Jess Horman and Alexander anchored here. nothing further of note this day.

Lyons Reef

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master

Wednesday Aug 15th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from N.E. no change in the ice. Cooper building a sturage. Laying to an anchor under the lee of Lyons Reef.

Thursday Aug 16th

Begins with foggy weather. eight A.M. Cleared up. took the anchor and tried to work to the Eastward. too much wind blowing a gale from N.E. & lost in shore and anchored nothing further of note this day Lyons Reef.

Friday Aug 17th

Begins with thick foggy weather this P.M. Cleared up. four steamers in sight to the Westward wind E to N.E. Cooper finished the sturage nothing further of note this day Lyons Reef.

Saturday Aug 18th

Throughout the day fine weather first part light S.E. winds and Calms this P.M. took the anchor and worked to the Eastward Mr Gillie gun all day sounding. Shifted after Davit to S.B. Boat and painted sturage Lyons Reef.

Sunday Aug 19th

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly winds and Calms. this A.M. took the anchor and made a start. wind died out and anchored again. Saw four steamers go by to the Eastward. Saw the Isunio working East. nothing further of note this day.

Lyons Reef.

1894. Chas. Rosario as a Whaling voyage in the

Monday Aug 20th

Throughout the day fine weather Easterley and N.E. wind. Sent a boat up as far as the East end of Hermans Island to see how the ice was returned since 1. P.M. Laying inside of the ice waiting for a favorable time to work east. Steamer Jeanie passed by this A.M. nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Aug 21st

Came in thick fog wind N.E. until this P.M. died and Calm. Steam Launch came along side with Captains Hagity Penniman Porter and Simmons. Cooper fitting up the galley nothing further of note this day.

Lions Reef.

Wednesday Aug 22nd

The wind breezed up from S.W. two A.M. took the anchor made sail and steered to the Eastward through ice. Saw the Steamer Jeanie ahead of us seven eight P.M. off Pt. Griffin. Broke out provisions. ten P.M. anchored it being dark. nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Aug 23rd

At two A.M. day light took the anchor made sail and worked to the Eastward through ice. Thick and smoky until noon then cleared up. Light Easterley winds and Calms this P.M. got into witch Current and had to anchor. Three Canoes came off from the land nothing further of note this day.

Arctic Ocean Cruise Logbook Master.

Friday Aug 24th

Spent the day fine weather first part Calm out four Boats out ahead and towed until eleven thirty and anchored. This P.M. breezed up from Eastward made sail and stood out on the northward tack into clear water no ice to speak of as far as we ever did. Nothing further
 of note this day.

Saturday Aug 25th

Begins with nice breeze from S.E. working to the Eastward this a.m. Saw Herschel Island got up to within eight miles and wind died out and had it Calm until five thirty P.M. when a light breeze sprang up from the Eastward. Watch Current and could not detect anything further of note this day.

Off Herschel Island.

Sunday Oct 26th

Begins with thick foggy weather light N.E. and Easterly wind nine a.m. Cleared up and breezed up & began working to the windward a mile out this P.M. Saw the Herschel and Belknap come out from Herschel Island and turning N by compass. So followed them up. Eight P.M. Captain went on board of the Belknap nothing further of note
 this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the
Monday Aug 27th

Blowing a strong gale from N.E. standing on the Southern tack most of the day. Saw two Steamers one had Boats down but to our purpose nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Aug 28th

Throughout the day blowing fresh gale from E.N.E. laying under easy sail and scattering ice. Twelve Steamers in sight but one of them Whaling not in future of note
this day.

Wednesday Aug 29th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from N.E. Six Steamers in sight. Laying under easy sail holding to the wind ward all we saw some ice around.
Launched four Rifles in the fore-castle and one with the Cork. took them away from them and stowed them away aft. nothing
further of note this day.

Thursday Aug 30th

Came in thick and rainy wind N.E. to N.N.E.
This A.M. moderated much sail and stood in shore to four fathoms of water then stood off. Saw three Steamers to our anchor. day closed working to the N.E.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Friday Aug 31st

Throughout the day blowing fresh gale from N.E. working to the windward. Jaws till four thirty P.M. then kept off steering in to the S.W. under fore sail. At dusk halled on the wind heading on the northern tack with stay sail sheet to the windward. Thus ends the day.

Saturday Sept 1st

Throughout the day blowing a strong gale from N.E. under single reef fore sail double reef main sail and fore stay sail. Saw two Whales this P.M. lowered stores Boats but to no purpose. two steamers in sight this A.M. to the windward. Nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Sept 2nd

Throughout the day fresh breezes from N.E. to E.N.E. hazy smoky weather. saw one Whale. but no rising. saw two steamers also 1st Handover Capt Porter came on board for a short time layed aboard through the night thus ends the day.

Monday Sept 3rd

Begins with fine weather fine W.M. lowered the Boats for a while but to no purpose. This P.M. came in foggy light variable winds and calm through the day. saw six sails this A.M. seven other to P.M. saw Handovers with Boats down. Nothing further of note this day.

1874 Schooner Resarc on a Whaling Voyage in the

Tuesday Sept 4th

Spent the day passing Fog Squalls. Went to the Northward Van Belvedere and gamed with her. Also saw Bark Triton. This P.M. saw a Whale lowered the Boats but to no purpose nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Sept 5th

N.E. wind hazy most of the day. Saw a Whale lowered the Boats but to no purpose. Saw Bark Triton Captain came on board for a short time nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Sept 6th

Strong breeze from N.E. Chased Whales all day late this P.M. L. Boat struck Boatsturner killed him with his gun. Took him along side got supper and set the watch got ready to cut two ships in sight.

L.D.

Friday Sept 7th

Light Easterly and N.E. wind. Thick and hazy most of the day. Cut in our Whale and cleared up the decks. Saw Whales and lowered two Boats twice but to no purpose. Saw the Steamer Newark Captain came on board for a short time. Also saw Bark Wanderer Capt Coffin went on board. Nothing further of note this day.

Arctic Ocean Edam Coffin Master.

Saturday Sept 8th

First and middle parts Calm fine weather last part light Easterly wind and cleared off to S.W. two sails in sight. Employed scraping and cleaning Bone. John Wilks sick and off duty. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Sept 9th

First part thick fog light N.E. wind middle part cleared up saw a Whale lowered the boats but to no purpose. saw four ships one had her boats down. finished cleaning Bone and bundled it up and weighed it 219 lbs.
day closes with fresh breeze nothing further
of note this day.

Monday Sept 10th

Begins with good weather fresh breeze from the northward. This A.M. saw a Whale lowered the boats but to no purpose. This P.M. wind light steering E by S by Compass. P.M. in foggy.
nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Sept 11th

Begins with thick foggy weather Easterly wind noon cleared up saw one sail. and the land.
John & Knithrop Captain came on board for a short time three thirty saw a Whale going quick lowered the boats but to no purpose nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Wednesday Sept 13th

Day is with fine clear weather light Westerly wind. Two A.M. came in foggy and wind backed to S.W. occasionally it let up. Saw John & Wentworth. Nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Sept 13th

Begins with thick foggy weather. Westerly and S.W. wind. Saw the Belvedere and sent a Head of Bone down for her weighing 2198 lbs. This A.M. cleared up and started off to S.W. Eight P.M. backed to the wind and luffed too under short sail.

Friday Sept. 14th

Fine weather Westerly and S.W. wind six A.M. Kept off and made sails & turning S.W. for Hunschal Island and anchored at ten A.M. Five Barrels here to an anchor. Mortimer Light Horatio Handwerker Triton and John & Wentworth. Got forty boxes of Potatoes and our mail from Mortimer Light. The Steamer Alvin came in to day.

Hunschal Island

Saturday Sept 15th

Begins with thick drizzly weather Easterly wind nine A.M. cleared up and had fine weather. Employed Landing provisions and empty Casks, making room for the winter. Steamer Beluga came in to day.

Hunschal Island

Arctic Ocean Edward Coffin Master.

Sunday Sept 16th

N.E. wind and Calms Thick foggy hazy weather. Employed landing Provisions. Also towed Schooner nearer the Land Spit. Many Ichuine came in. Beluga went out. gave out Skins and Plopes to all hands. nothing further of note this day.

Monday Sept 17th

Regins with hazy weather S. W. wind light finished landing stuff and washed off. nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Sept 18th

Regins with snowey weather. Seven A.M. Cleared up Westerly wind. Sent two Boats for wood. Cooper started in to build house on drain ditch. Last part wind halled to the Eastward nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Sept 19th

Light N.E. wind. New Port Alexander and Newark came in employed building house and working up wood nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Sept 20th

Regins with thick fog light variable winds and Calms sent three boats off for wood. Cooper working on the house Clear middle part and came in Thick at eight. nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at Honolulu

Friday Sept 21st

Throughout the day fine weather first part Calm this P.M. light Easterly wind sent three Boats for wood, Cooper working on the House. Nothing further of note this day.

Saturday Sept 22nd

Begins with foggy weather Easterly wind down A.M. Cleared up sent two Boats for wood. fine and clear through the day and came in foggy at night. Nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Sept 23rd

Throughout the day thick hazy weather Strong breeze from W.C. four P.M. dropped the second Anchor and gave her more Chaw. nothing further of note this day.

Monday Sept 24th

Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from W.C. Cooper to work on the House Navarck and Beluga came in nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Sept 25th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from E.N.E. Cooper working on the House. nothing of note this day.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Wednesday Sept 27th
The wind moderated and had fine weather
throughout the day Easterly wind and Calms sent two Boats for wood. and set up for Life most head day. Cooper working on the house five Steamers came in to day, the whole Fleet here to an anchor, nothing further of note
this day.

Thursday Sept 28th
Throughout the day fine weather light
S.W. wind. got four Boat loads of wood.
one Boat went off trasking for Deer meat and fish. Cooper working on the house nothing further of note this day.

Friday Sept 29th
Throughout the day light S.W. wind. Breeze partly weather. sent two Boats for wood Cooper working on the house nothing further
of note this day.

Saturday Sept 30th
Throughout the day fine weather Easterly wind sent two Boats for wood. Cooper working on the house nothing further of note this day

Sunday Sept 30th
Throughout the day fine weather first part S.W. wind light. this P.M. wind Easterly most of the crew on shore nothing further
of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at

Monday Oct 1st
 Throughout the day light Easterley wind first part snowey middle part cleared up. Several Steamers went out to tow a dead Whale in. took a Hawser of ours to haul him off the shore. Cooper working on the House put S.P. on shore

Tuesday Oct 2nd Begins with thick snowey weather Westerley and S.W. wind middle part cleared up four Steamers came in towing a dead Whale.
 Cooper working on the House nothing further
 of note this day.

Wednesday Oct 3rd
 Hazy and light falling snow. light Southerley and Easterley wind. employed in doing light jobs. nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Oct 4th
 Throughout the day fine weather light
 Easterley wind. employed cleaning up.
 nothing further of note this day.

Friday Oct 5th
 Begins with good weather light Easterley wind. This P.M. came in thick and brized up strong dropped the second Anchor. This A.M. went to look for fresh water Pond to cut Ice. but found the Ice too thin nothing further of note this day.

Kurehal Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Saturday Oct 6th

The wind moderated and had light variable winds and calms. With fine weather. one P.M. took the second anchor up. Some of the men went on shore to help a native build a house. remainder of the crew washed off and got out water. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Oct 7th

Begins with calm eight A.M. breezed up strong from S.W. gave her the second anchor fifteen fathoms of chain set. This P.M. blowing a gale. nine A.M. moderated nothing further of note this day.

Monday Oct 8th

Throughout the day fine weather: light variable winds and calms took up the starboard anchor. one boat went gunning copper working on the house. nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Oct 9th

Throughout the day fine weather light S.W. wind. started to cut ice but found it too thin nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Oct 10th

Throughout the day breezy with light S.W. wind light from S.W. to N.W. copper making a stove. put up one stove in the after house nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at Hurshak

Thursday Oct 11th

Throughout the day hazy weather with light snow. wind Westerly light. Cold. Thermometer 14° above zero. making ice in the bay ships froze in. nothing further of note. This day.

Friday Oct 12th

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly wind. Ice made thick enough to go ashore and back all day. Thermometer six above zero this morning a number of the steamers steamed into position for the winter. The pack from off shore came in sight to day.

Saturday Oct 13th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy Gale from S.W. Snowing. Cut the ice away from the schooner and pulled her around and headed her as we went her to lay through the winter nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Oct 14th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy gale from the Westward thick and snowing Schooner froze in the ice.

Island Edwin Coffin Master,

Monday Oct 15th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy gale from the Westward. Nothing of note this day.

Tuesday Oct 16th

The wind moderated down, and had fine weather all day. Employed cutting ice nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Oct 17th

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly wind. Employed cutting ice. Also put two Boats ashore. Nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Oct 18th

Throughout the day hazy foggy weather light S.W. wind. Employed sliding ice. And sawing wood. Nothing further of note this day.

Friday Oct 19th

Throughout the day fine weather light S.W. wind. Got two loads of ice. Nothing further of note this day.

Saturday Oct 20th

Throughout the day hazy weather fresh breeze from the Westward. Got two loads of ice.

Sunday Oct 21st

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly wind. Nothing further of note this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at

Monday Oct 23rd

Throughout the day fine clear weather and Culm got one load of ice.

Tuesday Oct 24th

Throughout the day fine weather light S.W. wind. not anything of note going on this day.

Wednesday Oct 25th

Throughout the day fine weather light S.W. wind. nothing of note this day.

Thursday Oct 26th

Throughout the day hazy snowy weather strong breeze from S.W.

Friday Oct 27th

Throughout the day fine weather S.W. wind nothing further of note this day. Peter went out hunting.

Saturday Oct 28th

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly wind. got two loads of ice.

Sunday Oct 29th

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly wind. nothing of note this day. Peter came to see John Kanacka who is sick.

Kurshal Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Monday Oct 29th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from N.W. hauled the Chains and put them below entering further of note this day.

Tuesday Oct 30th

At fine weather with light Easterley wind employed in general Ships duty.

Wednesday Oct 31st

Throughout the day fine weather with light breeze from the Westward nothing of note this day.

Thursday Nov 1st

Throughout the day fine weather light air from the N.E. Thermometer this morning 10° above zero nice and warm. got one load of Ice.

Friday Nov 2nd

Throughout the day hazy weather light Easterley wind. Sent a native out hunting Mr Kurek from the New Port Cunn over land fixed our stove. got two loads of Ice.

Saturday Nov 3rd

Throughout the day blowing a gale from S.W.

Sunday Nov 4th

The wind moderated and had fine weather got out Beef.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at Hurchal

Monday Nov 5th

Throughout the day fine weather Clear and Cold. Thermometer below zero. Banked up with snow around the stern. Natives came in with a load of Deer meat nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Nov 6th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the Eastward. In A.M. John Wike died. Sent some of the men to dig a grave. Some some trading for Deer meat nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Nov 7th

Throughout the day fine clear weather and calm. Buried John Wike at one thirty P.M. nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Nov 8th

Throughout the day fine weather first part light S.W. wind last part wind Easterly. Begon to bank in with snow and got one load of Ice. Mr. Henderson came and stayed all night.

Friday Nov 9th

Begins with fine weather light Westerly wind. This P.M. blowing a gale. employed banking up with snow.

53

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Saturday Nov 10th

Begins with fresh breeze from the Westward Thermometer down to zero this P.M. Moderated down and had fine weather nothing of note this day

Sunday Nov 11th

Begins with fine weather light Westerly Wind this P.M. light snow nothing of note
this day

Monday Nov 12th

Begins with fine weather light Westerly Wind Sent a sled for dog meat. This P.M. breezed up strong. nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday Nov 13th

Begins with a heavy gale from the Westward twelve in moderated. day closes with fine weather

Wednesday Nov 14th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy gale from the Westward.

Thursday Nov 15th

First part blowing a heavy gale from the Westward. This P.M. moderated Considerable snow fell

Friday Nov 16th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from Westward and A.M. employed hunting up with snow. sent sled off for whale meat for the dogs.

1894 Steamer Rosalie in Winter Quarters at Hurshel

Saturday Nov 17th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from N to NW. employed banking up with snow.

Sunday Nov 18th

Throughout the day fine clear and calm. Thermometer 20° below zero P.M.

Monday Nov 19th

Begins with fine moderate weather. This P.M. breezed up fresh from the Westward. got two loads of Ice. Ice'd up the windows. and done some banking up with snow. And sawed up some wood.

Tuesday Nov 20th

Throughout the day fine clear weather and calm. got two loads of Ice. and banking up with snow got 800 lbs of Ice from the Mary Deane for windows. and returned the same weight with heavy Ice.

Wednesday Nov 21st

Begins with fine weather. light Westerly wind. This P.M. breezed up strong. got two loads of Ice. and done some banking up nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Nov 22nd

Throughout the day light S.W. wind fine and clear. employed getting Ice and banking up. Thermometer 23° below zero.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Friday Nov 23rd

Throughout the day blowing fresh gale from the Westward not any thing of note going on this day.

Saturday Nov 24th

The wind moderated and had fine weather light air from S.E. to S.W. Thermometer 8° below zero got ice and snow for water and done some banking up.

Sunday Nov 25th

Begins with thick and light snowy weather Calm all day. This A.M. Cleared up some.

Monday Nov 26th

Throughout the day light air from the Westward and Calm very warm Thermometer 31° above zero. got down two weeks of ice.

Tuesday Nov 27th

Throughout the day fine weather light air from the Eastward employed in getting ice and sawing wood.

Wednesday Nov 28th

Throughout the day fine warm weather light breeze from S.W. employed in general ships duty.

Thursday Nov 29th

Throughout the day blowing fresh gale from the Eastward. not any thing going on this day.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at Churchill

Friday Nov 30th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from N.W.

Saturday Dec 1st

Throughout the day fine clear weather calm. Thermometer 15° below zero this A.M. employed in general ship's duty Stewart Dick.

Sunday Dec 2nd

Throughout the day fine clear weather this A.M. calm this P.M. light air from N.W.

Monday Dec 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather light westerly wind. got two loads of ice and hauled the remainder of our wood to the schooner.

Tuesday Dec 4th

Remained in fresh breeze from the Westward Thermometer 15° below zero. not much going on to day.

Wednesday Dec 5th

Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from the Westward. Thermometer 25° below zero. not much going on this day.

Thursday Dec 6th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy gale from the Westward thick and snowy. Thermometer 30° below zero

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Friday Dec 7th

Throughout the day blowing a heavy gale from the Westward. Thermometer this P.M. 24° below zero. not anything going on this day.

Saturday Dec 8th

Begins with heavy gale from the Westward this P.M. more moderate. Thermometer 2° below zero.

Sunday Dec 9th

The wind moderated and had light breezes through the day. Cold. Thermometer from 20° to 26° below zero.

Monday Dec 10th

Begins with fresh breeze from the Westward. This P.M. moderated down and had fine clear weather. Thermometer 30° below zero.

Tuesday Dec 11th

Throughout the day fine clear weather and calm. Thermometer from 36° to 40° below zero. got three loads of wood and done some banking up.

Wednesday Dec 12th

Throughout the day fine clear weather and calm. Thermometer 26° below zero. employed banking up and getting wood.

Thursday Dec 13th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light air from the Westward. Thermometer 26° below zero. Employed in general ship's duty. It goes in winter.

1894 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at

Friday Dec 14th

Throughout the day fine clear weather. light Easterly breeze. let Mr Robinson have the dogs six of them to do some work. nothing further of note this day.

Saturday Dec 15th

Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from the Westward. The first natives that we sent out hunting came in with one Deer and a part of another not any thing more of note this day.

Sunday Dec 16th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light Westerly wind. not any thing of note going on this day.

Monday Dec 17th

Begins with heavy gale from N.E. Eleven A.M. died away to a calm and had fine weather. This P.M. had a heavy squall from N.W. and died away again. Thermometer 15° below zero.

Tuesday Dec 18th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air and calm. got a load of ice this A.M. This P.M. attended the funeral of the Chief Engineer of the Jessie Hoeman. also fitted out a native for a hunting trip. started out but came back again. nothing further of note this day.

Assenel Island, Edm. Coffin, Master.

Wednesday Dec 19th

Throughout the day blowing strong breeze from Westward not anything of note this day.

Thursday Dec 20th

Throughout the day fine weather light S.W. breeze. got one load of Ice.

Friday Dec 21st

Begins with fine clear weather Thermometer 11° above zero and calm. This P.M. breezeed up from S.W. and blew a gale of wind. got one load of Ice. Nothing further of note this day.

Saturday Dec 22nd

Throughout the day fine weather light S.W. wind. got one load of Ice. Mr Robinson came with the dogs, and brought us a new sled got one load of Ice.

Sunday Dec 23rd

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light breeze from the Eastward

Monday Dec 24th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light air from the Westward. got one load of Ice, sawed wood and cleared up the decks.

Tuesday Dec 25th

Throughout the day fine weather light Easterly wind very warm melting out Veld. Henry Cruise got hurt with a sled and is layed up off duty.

1894 Schaner Roaming in Winter Quarters at Kasaan

Wednesday Dec 26th

Throughout the day fine warm weather light S.W. wind. got two loads of Ice nothing further of note this day.

Thursday Dec 27th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light westerly breeze. got one load of Ice. This day some of the men from the other ships deserted. nothing further of note this day.

Friday Dec 28th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light N.W. breeze and parts of the day calm got two loads of Ice.

Saturday Dec 29th

Throughout the day blowy stormy wind from S.W., not much going on this day.

Sunday Dec 30th

Throughout the day heavy snowy weather with fresh breeze from the S.W.

Monday Dec 31st

Throughout the day thick and snowy blowing a gale from the S.W. nothing further of note this day.

This ends the year of 1894 very warm weather.

Island Edwin Coffin Master 1895.

Tuesday Jan 1st 1895.

The wind moderated cleared up and had fine weather light air from Westward. Not any work going on this day, nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Jan 2nd

Throughout the day blowing a gale from S.W. nothing of note going on of note this day.

Thursday Jan 3rd

Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward.

Friday Jan 4th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from W to N.E. Thermometer 30 below zero. got a load of wood. and got out provisions nothing further of note this day.

Saturday Jan 5th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from N.W. Thermometer 36 below zero, got some wood. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Jan 6th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from N.W. Thermometer 25 below zero.

Monday Jan 7th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light N.W. breeze got one load of ice Thermometer 25 to 30 below zero.

1895 Schooner Rosario in Miller Quarters at Herschel

Tuesday Jan 8th
Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from the Westward got one load of Ice Thermometer 20 below zero.

Wednesday Jan 9th
Ice is with fine weather this P.M. came in snowy and breezed up strong from the Westward. got one load of Ice

Thursday Jan 10th
Throughout the day hazy weather fresh breeze from S.W.

Friday Jan 11th
Throughout the day hazy weather light breeze from the Westward got one load of Ice

Saturday Jan 12th
Throughout the day fine weather
light breeze from S.W. got one load of Ice. by thick to see the sun

Sunday Jan 13th
Throughout the day thick snowy weather blowing a gale from the Westward

Monday Jan 14th
Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from the Westward not any thing of note going on this day

Isabel Edwin Coffin Master

Tuesday Jan 15th

Throughout the day fine clear weather fresh breezes from N.E. got two loads of Ice on one trip. today we saw the sun for the first time.

Wednesday Jan 16th

Throughout the day hazy weather with fresh breezes from N.E. barometer 30.5 below zero.

Thursday Jan 17th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light Westerly and S.W. wind. got two loads of Ice.

Friday Jan 18th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light breezes from N.E. got one load of wood.

Saturday Jan 19th

Began with fine clear weather light breezes from the Westward this P.M. fresh breezes got one load of wood.

Sunday Jan 20th

Began with fine clear weather light Westerly wind this P.M. breezed up fresh. nothing further to note this day.

Monday Jan 21st

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light N.E. wind. got one load of Ice.

1895 Schaner Rosario in Winter Quarters at Herschel

Tuesday Jan 22nd
Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from Westward got two loads of ice nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday Jan 23rd
Begins with strong breeze from N.E. This P.M. moderated and the day closes fine and clear.

Thursday Jan 24th
Throughout the day fine weather and calm thermometer 20° below zero. got some wood nothing further of note this day.

Friday Jan 25th
Begins with fresh gale from N.W. This P.M. moderated. not any thing of note going on this day.

Saturday Jan 26th
Throughout the day fine weather light N.E. wind. got two loads of ice.

Sunday Jan 27th
Begins with fresh breeze from the Westward. This P.M. moderated thermometer 20° below zero.

Monday Jan 28th
Throughout the day blowing strong breeze from the Westward. two men went with dogs for wood.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Thursday Jan 29th
Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward thermometer below zero,

Wednesday Jan 30th
Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward not anything of note going on this day.

Thursday Jan 31st
Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward not much wind survey,

Friday Feb 1st
Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward not much wind survey, two men came home from our blunders this A.M.

Saturday Feb 2nd
Throughout the day blowing a gale from
the Westward not anything of note going
on this day.

Sunday Feb 3rd
The wind moderated and had fine weather
throughout the day. Light Westerley breeze

Monday Feb 4th
Throughout the day fine clear weather with light Westerley wind thermometer below zero.
Sent a sled loaded with provisions into the Country to one of the native hunters. and one sled went for dog meat. Six P.M. returned with a great load.

1895. Schooner Rosario in winter Quarters at

Sunday Feb 5th

Begins with strong Westerly wind eight A.M. Moderated and had fine weather through the day got two loads of Ice.

Wednesday Feb 6th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from the Northward and Calm. Thermometer 38° below zero got a sled load of dog meat.

Thursday Feb 7th

Begins with fine clear weather and light air from Northward sent and got one load of Ice. This P.M. wind breezed up strong nothing further is noted this day. Thermometer 36° below zero.

Friday Feb 8th

The wind moderated and had fine clear weather. light air from the Northward and Calm. got one load of dog meat. Thermometer 28° below zero.

Saturday Feb 9th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light ratherly wind. Thermometer 30° above zero got two loads of Ice. Henry Cruise recovered from sickness and on duty.

Sunday Feb 10th

Throughout the day hazy weather light breeze from N.W.

Wencheb Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Monday Feb 11th
Throughout the day hazy weather light Westerley wind got two loads of Ice

Tuesday Feb 12th
Throughout the day thick hazy weather light W.W. wind got two loads of Ice.

Wednesday Feb 13th
Throughout the day hazy weather fresh breezes from N.E. got one load of Ice.
This P.M. attended a funeral. buried a man from Stur Alexander.

Thursday Feb 14th
Fine Clear weather fresh gale from N.E.
not anything of note going on this day.

Friday Feb 15th
Throughout the day strong breezes from the Westward not anything of note this day.

Saturday Feb 16th
Throughout the day blowing a heavy Gale from the Westward thick and snowy. not any thing of note going on this day.

Sunday Feb 17th
Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from N.W. snow drifting badly thermometer 20° below zero.

1895 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Herschel

Monday Feb 18th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with fresh breeze from N. N. W. Thermometer 33° below zero. not anything of note going on this day.

Tuesday Feb 19th

Begins with fresh breeze from N. N. W. Thermometer 34° below zero This P.M. moderate and the day closes much warmer with southerly wind. nothing going on this day.

Wednesday Feb 20th

Blowing a strong breeze from the Westward Thermometer 38° below zero not anything of note going on this day.

Thursday Feb 21st

Fine clear weather light westerly wind Thermometer 20° below zero. got one load of ice and made a tub. nothing further of note this day.

Friday Feb 22nd

Throughout the day fine clear weather light N. W. wind. Thermometer 30° below zero this A.M. Employed getting things ready to send into the country for Deer meat finished making a tub and sled.

Saturday Feb 23rd

Throughout the day fine clear weather begins calm this P.M. light N. W. breeze Thermometer 38° below zero. Lie A.M. The Third Officer Mr Rogers with one man started out in the country to buy Deer meat. not anything further of note this day.

Island Edwin Coffin Master,

Sunday Feb 24th

Throughout the day fine clear weather fresh breeze from N.E. Thermometer 28° below zero Mr Rogers returned at six P.M. with sled broke down. repaired and got ready for another start

Monday Feb 25th

Throughout the day hazy weather light breeze from S.E. Thermometer 8° below zero Six thirty A.M. Mr Rogers started out for the Country with two men and twelve dogs,

Tuesday Feb 26th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from N.E. Thermometer 30° below zero. not any thing of note going on this day,

Wednesday Feb 27th

Throughout the day blowing a strong breeze from S.E. This A.M. Thermometer 28° below zero This P.M. 24° below not any thing going on this day,

Thursday Feb 28th

Throughout the day fine weather with light breeze from N.E. Thermometer from 22° below zero to 14° nothing further of note this day,

1895 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Herschel

Friday March 1st

Throughout the day hazy weather with light fall of snow. light breeze from N.E. Thermometer this A.M. 10° below zero got one load of ice

Saturday March 2nd

Throughout the day fine weather with fresh breeze from N.E. Thermometer at 0° not anything of note going on this day

Sunday March 3rd

Throughout the day fine clear weather light N.E. wind Thermometer 4° above zero.

Monday March 4th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from N.E. got one load of ice. Thermometer from 0° to 30° above not anything further of note this day.

Tuesday March 5th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light breeze from N.E. got one load of ice Thermometer 10° below zero to 10° above

Wednesday March 6th

Throughout the day fine weather light N.E. wind Thermometer at 0° . got one load of ice. Henry Cruise Sick and off duty.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Thursday March 7th

Began with fine weather and light N.E. wind Seven A.M. breezed up from the Westward and blew a heavy gale until four P.M. and moderated again to fine weather
Thermometer this A.M. 12° above zero.

Friday March 8th

Throughout the day fine weather
light N.W. wind and calm. Thermometer 13° above zero got one load of ice.

Saturday March 9th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the Eastward. and heeled off the decks and cleared off snow around the ice pile. Thermometer 10° above zero. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday March 10th

The wind breezed up strong from S.W. this P.M. moderated and had fine weather Thermometer this
A.M. 1° above zero

Monday March 11th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light westerly wind. Thermometer at 8° at three thirty-two men came in for a team of dogs to go out and help bring in a load of Deer meat. Started out again at five thirty P.M. with fifteen dogs from the View Port, five thirty Mr. Rogers came in with a load of Deer meat. a little frost bitten but not bad.
The other men went in for another sled.

1855 Schooner Rosario in Winter Quarters at Hornsby

Tuesday March 12th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from N.E. Six P.M. dog team arrived with three deer. nothing further of note this day

Wednesday March 13th

Throughout the day hazy snowy weather fresh breeze from N.E. got one load of Ice. Thermometer 1° above zero

Thursday March 14th

Began with hazy snowy weather light N.E. wind Six P.M. cleared up and sent dog team off to bring in a sled that was left in the country. one seaman and a native went out. day closed with light snowy weather, Thermometer at zero, this A.M.

Friday March 15th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light N.E. wind. Thermometer 22° below zero this A.M. not anything of note going on this day.

Saturday March 16th

Throughout the day fine weather N.E. wind not anything further of note this day.

Sunday March 17th

Throughout the day fine weather light N.E. wind. Thermometer 18° below zero.

Island Edwin Coffin Master

Monday March 18th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from S.E. by W. day. Mr Rogers & Bartel out in the country with two Native Boys. for a load of Deer meat, got one load of Ice nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday March 19th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with light breeze from W.E. & N.E. Thermometer from 22° below zero to 12° above. got one load of Ice nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday March 20th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from the Northward. Thermometer this A.M. 12° below zero twelve at noon 12° above zero. got one load of Ice.

Thursday March 21st

Throughout the day clear weather fresh breeze from the Westward not any thing further of note this day.

Friday March 22nd

Throughout the day hazy weather light breeze from the Westward Thermometer this A.M. 28° below zero nothing further of note this day.

Saturday March 23rd

Throughout the day clear weather with fresh breeze from the Westward. Thermometer 28° below zero not any thing of note going on this day.

1895 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Herschel

Sunday March 24th

Spent the day clear weather this A.M. Strong breeze from the Westward Thermometer 34° below zero. This P.M. wind moderated down and had it much warmer.

Monday March 25th

Throughout the day fine weather light air from the Westward and Calm. Thermometer this A.M. 18° below zero. This P.M. the native that was fitted out last fall to go to the Eastward returned with 359 lbs of Deer meat and a few skins nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday March 26th

Began with fine moderate weather fair A.M. breeze up from the Westward and blew a gale the remainder of the day. Thermometer 22° below zero this A.M.

Wednesday March 27th

Throughout the day blowing a gale of wind from the Westward. Thermometer 22° below zero. Had news from Mr. Rogers reported all right.

Thursday March 28th

The wind moderated and had fine weather light westerly breeze. Thermometer this A.M. 20° below zero. Moved the ice back nothing further of note this day.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Friday Feb 29th

Throughout the day Clear weather fresh breeze from the Eastward. Thermometer 2° below zero this A.M. Sent out a team of dogs with ² Peters of the Boatsteers to meet Mr Rogers on his way in from the Country. Also let Capt Simmons have a dog for a short trip. This P.M. Capt Weeks of the Steamer Thrasher fell down the hatch way and died from the effects of the fall.

Saturday Feb 30th

Throughout the day fine Clear weather light breeze from the Eastward. Thermometer 10° below zero. This P.M. Mr Rogers returned from the Country with a load of Deer meat 898 lbs. Mr Rogers some what frost bitten nothing out of the way.

Sunday Feb 31st

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the Eastward. Thermometer 10° below zero this A.M. Capt Charles Weeks of the Steamer Thrasher was buried & his remains put in a box board. A number of the crew attended the funeral.

Sunday April 1st

Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward. Thermometer 10° below zero. Joe Boatsteers returned from the Country in good shape.

Tuesday April 2nd

Wind Aug. variable, with blowing a gale from the Westward East, with more moderate. Thermometer 6° below zero nothing of note going on this day.

1896. Schooner Rosario in winter Quarters at Herschel.

Wednesday April 3rd

Throughout the day blowing a gale from the Westward. Thermometer 6° below zero not any thing of note going on this day.

Thursday April 4th

The wind moderated and had light falling of snow most of the day. S.W. wind light. Thermometer 0° zero to 16° Above.

Friday April 5th

Throughout the day heavy weather light fall of snow. Light air from N.E. Thermometer from 8° above zero to 12° Above. Got a sled ready to go out in the Country.

Saturday April 6th

Throughout the day fine weather light breezes from N.E. This A.M. Joe Peters and a native started out in the Country for a load of Deer meat. Thirteen dogs.

Sunday April 7th

Throughout the day good weather fresh breezes from the Westward. Thermometer this A.M. 6° below zero. Nothing further of note the day.

Monday April 8th

Throughout the day strong breezes from N.E. Thermometer 12° below zero.

Island Edwin Coffin Hester.

Tuesday April 9th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light Northerly and N.W. wind. Thermometer from 9 to freezing, at twelve forty five. Cabot W.M. Henry Cruise died, from natural causes. Cooper made a coffin, and we dug the grave, fumigated the fore castle, and made all preparations to bury him, nothing further of note this day.

Wednesday April 10th

Throughout the day fine weather light Northerly. Wind at ten thirty C.M. buried the remains of Henry Cruise. not any thing further of note this day.

Thursday April 11th

Throughout the day fine weather. light Northerly wind. got on board of Rev. Church off the door from the after house, not any thing further of note this day.

Friday April 12th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the Westward. got on board of the

Saturday April 13th

Throughout the day good weather fresh breeze from N.W. Thonster O' this morning. employed clearing snow off of the forward house, and cutting out the ice from around the boiler

Sunday April 14th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from N.W. and Quoney, Thermometer 8 below zero

1896 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Hessel

Monday April 16th
Blowing a fresh gale from W. W.
Thermometer 6° below zero.

Tuesday April 16th
The wind moderated just this P.M. had fine weather light breeze from W. Thermometer 12° below zero this A.M.

Wednesday April 17th
Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from W. W. got one load of ice and cut out the Rudder. Nothing further of note
this day.

Thursday April 18th
Throughout the day fine clear weather light westerly wind. Employed clearing away snow from along side. This P.M. Joe Peters returned from the country with a load of Deer meat 80 lbs.

Friday April 19th
Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from W. E. employed clearing away the snow from along side.

Saturday April 20th
Throughout the day fine clear weather. Light air from S. E. and Calms. Thermometer from 0° to fourty above. Finished clearing the snow from the starboard side of the schooner. Mr. Flanders brought some of his things up and left them here. Not anything further of note this day.

Bel Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Sunday April 21st
Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from
S.W. Thermometer 3° below zero about noon.

Monday April 22nd
Begins with fresh gale from S.W. Thermometer 3° below zero this P.M. moderated and had fine weather.
got a sled ready to go out in the country for Deer meat.

Tuesday April 23rd
Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from the Eastward. got two loads of Ice.

Wednesday April 24th
Begins with hazy weather light easterly breeze and a light fall of snow. This P.M. cleared up. got two loads of Ice.

Thursday April 25th
Begins with a gale of wind from S.W.
This P.M. moderated. Thermometer 30° above zero cleared off the frost and ice about decks and washed off.

Friday April 26th
The wind freshened up again and blew a gale from the Westward. Thermometer 12° above or 20° above zero started a cask of Alcohol.

Saturday April 27th
The wind freshened up from the Westward and blew a gale this P.M. more moderate Thermometer 20° above zero got any thing further of note this day.

1895 Schooner Rosario in Winter quarters at Hecla

Sunday April 28th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from N.W. and calm. Thermometer from 4th to 58° above zero. This A.M. James Dismors came to the Captain for a Rifle to go hunting. Let him have it. But has not returned he also took a small sled with him

Monday April 29th

Throughout the day fresh breezes from the Westward. Thermometer 12° above to 3° above zero. got two loads of Ice. got out what empty Cask in the hole to fit for water. James Dismors has not returned. so conclude he has deserted.

Tuesday April 30th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light N.E. wind. Thermometer 6° below zero to 12° above. got two loads of Ice. Hunted the native that was out hunting for Deer meat returned this P.M. brought in two Deer meat. He saw James Dismors going into the country. he had taken one bag of Flour and one bag of Bread that was left by me. of the sleds. for his own use. without permission.

Wednesday May 1st

Began with strong breeze from the Eastward middle part moderated and the last part breezed up from S.W. Thermometer 6° below to 10° above zero nothing further of note. This day.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Thursday May 2nd

Spawning a gale of wind from S.W. Thick and hazy.
Last part more moderate.

Friday May 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather light Easterley wind got two loads of Ice but any thing further of note
this day.

Saturday May 4th

Begins with fresh gale from the Eastward but part more moderate. one A.M. sled load of Deer meat came to the Schooner. one of the Egilicks 127 lbs of horse meat furnished a seaman sick and of duty. got one load of Ice.

Sunday May 5th

Throughout the day fresh breeze from N.E. Thermometer 8° above zero. Egilick Bay left two P.M. nothing further of note this day.

Monday May 6th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light
Easterly wind Thermometer 20° above zero

Tuesday May 7th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air
from the Northward. got one load of Ice Thermometer 20° above zero. Teetuck the native hunter started out in the country this A.M.

Wednesday May 8th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from Northward. got one load of Ice. opened two cask of Flour. and started in to take down the house in the dock. Thermometer from 20° above zero to 36° above

1896 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Herschel

Thursday May 9th

Throughout the day hazy weather light breeze from N.E. Shoveled the snow away from Port side of the schooner. and Cooper took down a part of the house. Bernhard returned to duty.

Friday May 10th

Throughout the day fine weather. light breeze from the Northward. Started in to clear out the hole, and get ready to stow it off.

Saturday May 11th

Throughout the day fine weather light Northley breeze. Thermometer 42° above zero. employed Stowing Water Casks

Sunday May 12th

Throughout the day fine weather light air from the Northward. received a mail this a.m. Thermometer 20° above zero.

Monday May 13th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the N.E. got what Provisions off that was on shore Cooper & Lagging off Casks to stow for water. Thermometer 20° above zero. Joe returned from the Country

Tuesday May 14th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from the Eastward. Stowed away a few Cask Cooper repairing others. not anything further of note this day.

Island Edwin Coffin Master

Wednesday May 15th

Throughout the day moderate weather light Easterly breeze. Finished taking on board stores that were on shore all winter. not any thing further of note this day.

Thursday May 16th

Begins with hazy weather and a light fall of snow middle part cleared up. fresh breeze from the Eastward. got a sled load of wood, and took down a part of the forward part of the house.

Friday May 17th

Throughout the day fine weather light Westerly wind. not any thing of note going on this day.

Saturday May 18th

Throughout the day blowing a gale from the westward with snow. George Brown the Steward this morning was insolent and saucy to the Captain beyond endurance. he also refused duty. put him in irons and tied him up. we afterwards overhauled his personal effects as there was suspicion of his taking things not belonging to him. found six different pieces of Calico thirty yards in all, also Powder, and spoons knives and forks, also found cartridges and a magnifying glass. also some other small things. put him out of the Cabin and sent him forward. this noon while we were at lunch he got clear and started off to the Eastward. soon found him and brought him back again.

1895 Schooner Kalaris in winter quarters at Henshel

Sunday May 19th

The wind moderated and had fine weather and halled to the Eastward. George Brown in P.M. today found some more things that he had taken not belonging to him.

Monday May 20th

Throughout the day clear weather but blowing a gale of wind from the Eastward. Employed cleaning out the lazarets. George Brown the Steward acknowledged to have taken things not belonging to him. nothing further of note this day.

Tuesday May 21st

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from the Eastward, dried sails and cleaned up the deck. Joe started out in the country.

Wednesday May 22nd

Throughout the day fine weather some parts of the day fresh breeze and again very light from the Eastward. overhauled the Windlass and cleaned some iron work.

Thursday May 23rd

Throughout the day fine weather light N.E. wind Employed cleaning iron work and painting it nothing further of note this day.

Friday May 24th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light air from N.E. took down the remaining part of the house, took the P.M. off George Brown and set him to work.

Island Edwin Coffin Master.

Saturday May 25th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from N.E. Took in at lumber we had ashore overhauled the Iron Docks and got them in working order. Cleaned Iron work. Not any thing further of note this day.

Sunday May 26th

Throughout the day fine weather. Light breeze from E.E. This was right day for a short time.

Monday May 27th

Throughout the day fine weather wind N.E. scraping Iron work and paint, got out blocks and some painting. Gas returned from the Country.

Tuesday May 28th

Throughout the day fine clear weather N.E. wind employed scraping and painting. Went for dog meat.

Wednesday May 29th

Fine clear weather by N.E. wind employed scraping off old paint and painting Iron work. Striped new hull sheet blocks.

Thursday May 30th

Throughout the day fine clear weather fresh breeze from N.E. scraping and cleaning of the Schooner and overhauling blocks.

Friday May 31st

Throughout the day fine weather N.E. wind. Scraping and cleaning. Captain went off on a gunning cruise.

1895 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Herckel

Saturday June 1st

Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from N.E. finished scraping floors and washed off nothing further of note this day.

Sunday June 2nd

Clear weather first and middle parts last part came in foggy weather by wind light.

Monday June 3rd

Began with fresh gale from the Westward with snow. This P.M. cleared up and moderate wind shifted to the Eastward. employed scraping yard saws and snags. Tentuck came in from the country with 20 lbs of Deer meat. Captain also returned from evening cruise with fine ducks.

Tuesday June 4th

First and middle parts blowing fresh gale from the Westward snow and rain. Last part more moderate cleared up. Started in to burning and scraping the paint off out side.

Wednesday June 5th

The wind moderated down and had fine weather with light Easterly wind until four P.M. began up fresh from S.W. seven thirty came in rainy. finished burning and scraping off and started in to painting. put square sail yard up and bent the sail.

Island Edwin Coffin Master,

Thursday June 6th

Throughout the day fine clear weather wind S.E. light. Employed painting ship out side. and cleaning up deck and masts. not anything further of note this day.

Friday June 7th

Throughout the day hazy weather wind from W.E. to N. Strong breezes most of the day. Employed flaging off Cask and getting water started the pump at 3.30 P.M.

Saturday June 8th

Throughout the day fine weather light breeze from Westward. Finished pumping water at four O.M. closed off the hole. other ways doing general work. Three P.M. washed off thus ends the day.

Sunday June 9th

Throughout the day fine weather with light Easterly wind.

Monday June 10th

Begins with fine clear weather S.E. wind this P.M. comes in foggy. employed setting up rigging and getting ready to paint.

Tuesday June 11th

Begins with hazy weather fresh breeze from N.W. this A.M. cleared up and started in and painted the inside of the schooner not being further of note this day. Joe and Luta started out in the Canoe.

1895 Schooner Arctico in winter quarters at Herschel

Wednesday June 12th
Throughout the day fine clear weather fresh breeze from N.W. Employed painting and cleaning work.

Thursday June 13th
Throughout the day fine clear weather light breeze from N.W. to N.E. employed painting second coat inside. and cleaning the Boats
nothing further of note this day.

Friday June 14th
Throughout the day blowing strong breeze from W.E. employed cleaning Boats and doing odd jobs not anything further of note this day.

Saturday June 15th
Throughout the day fine weather Easterly wind employed painting second coat outside. Cooper finished up his weeks work to night on board of the Star Kavarok.

Sunday June 16th
Began with fine weather and continued until three P.M. then breezed up from the Westward and blew a heavy gale. a very full tide.

Monday June 17th
Throughout the day fine weather Easterly wind
Cooper repairing Boats.

Tuesday June 18th
Fine weather until 1 P.M. and this P.M. had a thunder shower. Fine W.M. got a fast out astern and the anchors ready to drop breezed up strong.
Employed cleaning up the hold and saw off the cutting jacks. Cooper repairing Boats.

Island Eden Coffee House

Wednesday June 19th

Begins with fresh gale from S.W. with rain
This P.M. moderated and had good weather Crew to work on the Boats.

Thursday June 20th

Begins with Easterly wind and thick fog nine A.M. cleared up and this P.M. wind to the North. finished repairing the Boats and pinned them over. Sent up Crows nest and done other small jobs.

Friday June 21st

Begins with thick foggy weather light breeze from the Northward nine A.M. cleared up had fine weather twelve thirty started adrift with ice all around us ~~and~~ at starboard anchor go and swung to it two P.M. all the ice cleared away from the Schooner. Tared surving on the rigging and painted the Boats.

Saturday June 22nd

Thick foggy S.W. wind nine A.M. cleared up and six P.M. foggy again. finished painting the Boats and done other small jobs. and washed off

Sunday June 23rd

Throughout the day fine weather Northley wind light.
outside thick and foggy.

Monday June 24th

Throughout the day fine weather N.E. wind employed repairing sails and doing other small jobs. Mr Gillie went off on a fishing cruise. took one of the men with him.

1895 Schooner Rosario in winter quarters at Herschel

Tuesday June 25th

Strong Easterly wind all day until six P.M. died away Calm employed in doing odd jobs. Cooper making boards for the heads of the graves of the two men that died.

Wednesday June 26th

The wind breezed up strong from N.E. again. Twelve thirty dropped the Port Anchor. Six P.M. moderated eight thirty took Port Anchor to Port head. Joe went off with one man and two dogs to bring in fish. employed otherwise in small jobs about the schooner.

Thursday June 27th

Became with light northerly wind. Light rain this P.M. Cloud up and wind hauled to the Westward. Joe came in with seventy fish.

Friday June 28th

Throughout the day clear weather with fresh breeze from N.W. Mr Rogers went with a boat and crew to S.W. Sound Spit for fish and to night Charles came in with one hundred fish.

Saturday June 29th

Warm weather light Easterly wind first part middle part breezed up from N.W. six P.M. came in foggy. Charles went for more fish this A.M. not any chance of us going on this day.

Island Eden Coffin Master.

Sunday June 30th

Throughout the day hazy and foggy light northerly wind. Charlie started off for mure this P.m.

Monday July 1st

Worst and middle parts blowing fresh breeze from the N.E. but part died out calm plenty of ice out side yet, no ship got out yet.
Camey came in with 70 fish.

Tuesday July 2nd

Throughout the day fine weather fresh breeze from the N.E. until seven P.m. moderated down. Cut away some ice and hauled close in to the beach stuns on. Mouse went for fish with five dogs.

Wednesday July 3rd

Throughout the day fine weather fresh breeze from the N.E. waiting for the ice to move so we can go to sea. Mr Gillie came home from fishing.

Thursday July 4th

Throughout the day cold easterly wind in the morning and evening foggy. All the ships had flags set we fired twenty one guns at eight A.M. day passed off with various sports and closed in a boat race thirteen boats Schorners Boat came in No four. no accidents through the day.

1895 Schmeer Rosario in Winter quarters at

Friday July 5th

Throughout the day fine weather fresh breeze from the Eastward not anything of note going on this day.

Saturday July 6th

Throughout the day fine clear weather strong N.E. wind. Sent four men this morning to begin in fishing gear. They returned this thirty P.M. nothing further of note this day.

Sunday July 7th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light Easterly wind and Calms. All the Steamers went out to day.

Out of Winter Quarters Monday July 8th

Throughout the day fine weather. This A.M. light baffling wind and Calms. Ice blacked up and all the sailing ships came to sea. we pulled out by the Point got light air from the land and came along all right this P.M. good breeze from N.W. brought out one native with us.

Tuesday July 9th

Throughout the day fine weather variable winds and Calms until seven P.M. breezed up strong from the Westward working to the Eastward and one P.M. anchored between Kings Pt and St Sabine got off six Boat Loads of wood day ends with strong breeze two and a half fathoms of water fifteen fathoms of Chain set.

Herschel Island Edwin Coffin Master,

Wednesday July 10th
 Begins with light breeze from the Eastward weather fine and clear. got off three Boat loads of Ralston and fired A.M. Took the anchor and went to sea working to the Eastward. Saw four Parks to the Westward of us. Also saw smoke from a steamer not any thing further of note this day.

Thursday July 11th
 Begins with strong breeze from the Westward. At thirty
 A.M. anchored off Pellie Island Came in thick and foggy At A.M. cleared up took the anchor and worked to the Eastward Three P.M. Came in thick fog five P.M. tied up to a large piece of Ice

Friday July 12th
 Begins with thick fog and calm. Wind thirty light breeze from the Eastward. let go from the ice made sail and worked to the windward. This P.M. wind halled to the Southward steering to the Eastward by Richards Island.
 saw Ice to Southward with a good fresh breeze. eleven P.M. wind died out and could not steer so anchored. Thus ends the day.

Saturday July 13th
 Came in foggy and remained so until six A.M. light breeze sprung up from N.E. Took the anchor and worked to the windward. eleven A.M. Anchored again. seven thirty P.M. fresh breeze got under way and worked to Eastward.

1895 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Sunday July 14th

Begins with fine weather and good breeze from the Southward. I took to the Eastward along the land until one P.M. wind died out and anchored off Cape Delhausie plenty of ice off shore. but little in shore. got three seals. had quite a shower or rain.

Monday July 15th

Throughout the day Westerly and N.W. winds light and part of the time calm two thirty A.M. took the anchor and steered to the Eastward. Eight A.M. foggy and wind got foul of ground ice sprung rudder head. tied up to ground ice and repaired rudder. Five P.M. Capt Hagity from Triton came on board. Seven P.M. Thick fog lay off Cape Delhausie.

Tuesday July 16th

Begins with Southerly wind and rain. eight A.M. Cleared up. Wind hauled to Westward let go from to ice this A.M. worked to the windward for a while and then anchored. two P.M. Ice came down and floated in shore. Haulover and Triton here with us. Three other ships in sight to the Westward.

Wednesday July 17th

Throughout the day fine clear weather fresh breeze from the Southward eight A.M. took the anchor and steved off shore ten A.M. found shoal water and anchored again. one P.M. got under way and to the N.W. by N across $\frac{1}{4}$ less 3 and deepened the water. and at six thirty P.M. anchored off Bailey Island in three and a half fathoms of water. Haulover John & Winthrop and Horatio came in with us. Saw one steamer to the Eastward of the Island.

Capt. Oscar Edwin Coffin Master.

Thursday July 18th

Throughout the day fine clear weather. in the morning fresh breeze from South Six thirty hauled to S.W. and the canoe in got under way and came around on N.E. side of Raley Island which did away calm and anchored. This P.M. breeze from Eastward hence P.M. wind hauled to Westward took the anchor and run to the Eastward. Triton went ashore this A.M. saw a number of the Steamers. all working East.

Friday July 19th

Throughout the day fine clear weather light N.E. wind sent a boat down to help the Triton off of the bottom the canoe off at five fifteen P.M. not any thing further of note this day.

Saturday July 20th

Strong S.W. wind got under way at seven A.M. and stood in shore. Seven P.M. had to move again to clear ice. All the Steamers here except the Alliance let the Triton have twenty fathoms of water.

Sunday July 21st

Throughout the day light S.W. breezes and calm eight A.M. moved in shore into four and a half fathoms of water. This P.M. Boat went in fishing got a hundred and thirty odd fish.

Monday July 22nd

Began with fine weather light Westerly wind. This P.M. wind hauled to N.E. and had light rain. All the Steamers in sight. Six of them anchored here. had a Boat in fishing got two hundred. Thus ends the day.

1896 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Tuesday July 23rd

Begins with fine weather light N.E. wind seven thirty took the Anchor and worked to Westward this P.M. light variable winds and Calm Anchored and got under way several times. Seven P.M. light breeze from S.W.

Wednesday July 24th

Throughout the day strong S.W. and Westerly wind. Seven thirty A.M. took the Anchor and came around on the lee side of Raley Island this P.M. foggy at times. thirteen ships Anchored along here. two others went to the S.W. by a sea moderate.

Thursday July 25th

Begins with fine weather and calm this P.M. wind breezed up from N.E. got under way run off around the Island to the Westward. Two hauled up in to Liverpool Bay saw the Morison Light to an Anchor, also the Thrasher steaming to the Eastward saw a good many White Fish.

Friday July 26th

Throughout the day fine clear weather with good breezes from N.W. to W. working to the Westward along the land. in Company with six other ships this P.M. off McKimley Bay no Whales to be seen. and a plenty of clear water nine P.M. did not Calm and Anchored.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Saturday July 27th

Worst and muddest parts light South. wind. and last part strong breeze. Six A.M. took the anchor and run off to the Westward Seven P.M. Pullen Island in sight. Four ships in sight

Sunday July 28th

Light Southerly wind and fine weather Cruising no Whales. Five ships in sight eight P.M. Anchored off West end of McKinley Bay. Boat went in hunting and fishing got one Deer. not any thing further of note
this day.

Monday July 29th

Begins with light S.E. wind two A.M. took the anchor and stood out to sea cruising saw two ships. nine A.M. wind hauled to N.E. fine weather and a nice breeze, but no Whales. Seven A.M. off Cape Wollaston took in light sails and layed with jib to the windward.

Tuesday July 30th

Throughout the day hazy smoky weather. Easterly and S.E. wind working to the windward. Saw the John & Harlowe not any thing further of note this day.

Wednesday July 31st

Begins with fine weather light Easterly wind steering up into Liverpool Bay. Six A.M. run down along the land and four thirty P.M. Anchored behind sand spit off Raley Island wind hauled to Westward came in foggy. Boat went in sounding and fishing. Shifted some water to day and took out a cask and repaired it. Saw six of the Steamers. and one Bark

1895 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Thursday Aug 1st

Throughout the day fresh breeze from the Westward and S.W. Buggy and foggy most of the day. Saw six ships anchored on the N. & E. side of the Island. This A.M. Boat went in fishing got fifty.

Boat anchored at Bailey Island.

Friday Aug 2nd

Begins with fine weather and fresh breeze from the Westward. At A.M. took the anchor and stood out into Liverpool Bay. Came in rain. And breezed on to a fresh gale. stood back and two P.M. anchored again on the lee of the sand spit. Saw seven ships on the East side of the Island.

Bailey Island.

Saturday Aug 3rd

Begins with strong Westerly wind Buggy and foggy. Saw thirty sent Boat to sound to see if there was water enough for the Schooner to go through inside. found it too shoal. one Boat went fishing two P.M. got under way and came around on East side of the Island wind light. thirty anchored.

Sunday Aug 4th

Begins with fine weather and Calm. This P.M. light breeze from the Westward. had a light fall of rain. Saw one of the Steamers had her boats down. All of the Steamers moved off to the Eastward.

Capt. Isaac Edwin Coffin Master

Sunday Aug 5th

Begins with fresh breeze from the Westward and snow six thirty took the anchor and worked to the windward twelve m. wind blew on to a fresh gale, run off and at two P.M. anchored. Saw the John & Whitrope with boats down, also saw his Whale working to the Westward a number of ships in sight.

Tuesday Aug 6th

Begins with strong breeze from the Westward ten A.M. got under way and stood off shore cruising twelve m. lowered for a whale but to no purpose. This P.M. saw a Whale lowered two Boats S.B. struck took him along side stood in shore and anchored and cut him in finished cutting nine fifteen P.M. wind died out to calm through the day saw several ships Whaling, our Whale and four foot Rocks. Cutters sick and off duty.

Wednesday Aug 7th

Begins with fine weather light variable winds and calms this P.M. wind breezed up from the Eastward. Took the line in and stood off shore cruising saw three ships Whaling, this A.M. a number of the ships went off to the Westward, this P.M. all others except Calines kept off to the Westward, Cutters sick and off duty.

Thursday Aug 8th

Begins with strong easterly wind and rainy stirring off to the South and West seven A.M. cleared up and moderated, remainder of the day light breeze and calms. Anchored once, seven A.M. saw a Whale lowered the Boats but to no purpose. Saw two other ships Whaling.

S.B. Whale

1895 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the

Friday Aug 9th

Begins with fine weather light N.E. wind running off to S.W. four P.M. came in rain and breezed up to a strong breeze saw Whales lowered the Boats but to no purpose, reefed fore sail and main sail. day ended with moderate.

Saturday Aug 10th

Begins with fresh breeze from N.E. moderated down and had light air and Calm until twelve thirty P.M. breezed up from S.W. and had a strong breeze working to windward between C. and land until six thirty P.M. Anchored saw two Whips to the windward Pullen Island bearing South by Compass

Sunday Aug 11th

Begins with a strong breeze from Westward came thirty A.M. took the anchor and worked to the windward until P.M. wind moderated. Seven P.M. anchored off Hooper Island. Three Barke here to an anchor, also saw two Steamers. plenty of Ice all along the coast. Capt. Wenter from the Wanderer came on board.

Monday Aug 12th

Begins with light N.E. wind hazy and foggy. four A.M. got under way and worked to the Eastward in company with Wanderer. saw four whips to the Westward also saw Fearless to and anchored off Pullen Island. Saw a whale this morning lowered the Boats but to no purpose. Came in foggy came on board. Ten P.M. lowered the Boats again for a Whale but did not see him again.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master

Tuesday Aug 18th

Through the day fine weather strong Easterly and N.E. wind worked to the Eastward until four P.M. then run off until seven P.M. and layed to with more sail and here stay till a.m. saw four Ships to day, saw Banks Handwerker ashore in close thick fog.

Wednesday Aug 19th

Begins thick and foggy this P.M. cleared up so could see short distance N.E. wind fresh. seven A.M. clear saw a Whale leaved the Boats but did not see him again. Handwerker & John & Knuthrope in sight also Stur Alexander eight P.M. anchored and ten thirty ice came down and had to get under way.

Thursday Aug 15th

Begins with fine clear weather Easterly wind. six A.M. came in thick fog stood in to five fathoms of water and anchored. two A.M. clear and got under way and stood off to the ice ran out again and run off to the Westward. Joss & Crossman came along and spoke us. Capt Coffin went on board. Handwerker and John & Knuthrope in sight.

Friday Aug 16th

Begins with thick foggy weather Easterly and N.E. wind. two A.M. ice came down and had to move inshore two P.M. fog cleared up three thirty took the anchor and worked to the windward Cruising five Ships in sight

1895 Schooner Rosario on a whaling voyage in the

Saturday Aug. 7th

Throughout the day fine clear weather
This A.M. light N.E. wind working to the Eastward this P.M. wind S.E. Six P.M. saw a Whale lowered the Boats but to no purpose. Nine P.M. took the Boats up and anchored

Sunday Aug 18th

Begins with light air from S.E. to S. not wind enough to steer. Fine weather all day. one P.M. light breeze from S.E. got under way and worked to the Eastward breezed up to a fine working breeze

Monday Aug. 19th

Throughout the day fine weather good working breeze from N.E. stood off shore ten thirty A.M. saw a Whale lowered the Boats chased until four P.M. to no purpose. Saw the Thrasher with Boats down whaling

Tuesday Aug 20th

Throughout the day fine clear weather fine working breeze from the Eastward. Four A.M. saw a Whale lowered the Boats twelve M. S.P.B. struck turned him up took him along side and cut him in, finished cutting three P.M. cleared up the decks and washed off decks.

Whale S.P.B.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Wednesday Aug 31st

Throughout the day fine weather light S.E. wind. Running off to the Westward Cruising four P.M. saw two ships to the Westward Whaling. Six P.M. saw a Whale lowered the Boats but to no purpose. eight P.M. Calm and Anchored.

Thursday Aug 31st

Throughout the day fine weather Calm until two P.M. light breeze from N.E. got under way and worked to the windward. saw a Whale. did not lower. only saw him once rising. two Parks in sight to the Westward this A.M. one of them had boats down. (Calm) sick and off duty. eight P.M. anchored.

Friday Aug 31st

Begins with Calm and fine weather five A.M. light breeze from the Westward got underway stood off Cruising. this P.M. Calm seven P.M. Anchored two Parks in sight to the Westward.

Saturday Aug 31st

Begins with fine clear weather and Calm four A.M. Came in foggy light Air from S. to N.W. got under way this A.M. stood to the Westward. for a short time and anchored again. five P.M. started again light breeze from N.W. eight P.M. Anchored and layed remainder of the day.

1895 Steamer Rosario on a whaling voyage in the

Sunday Aug 25th

Begins with fine clear weather. I did not get under way at four A.M. and stood off shore this P.M. ran off to the Westward four thirty saw a whale lowered the boats but to no purpose. This P.M. came in rainy stood in shore.

Monday Aug 26th

Breezed up and blew a fresh gale from N to S.W. stood in shore and anchored eleven A.M. got under way and stood off shore. Saw five steamers. Deluge got a whale this P.M. In derated, Captain Cook came on board, layed around under short sail remainder of the day.

Tuesday Aug 27th

Throughout the day fine weather this A.M. light Westerley wind and did out to sea. Calm. This P.M. light breeze from N and N.W. stood on Western tack. Five steamers in sight four of them steamed to the Westward eleven twenty anchored again. thick fog.

Wednesday Aug 28th

Throughout the day thick and foggy no wind to work the vessel with until five thirty P.M. light breeze from North took the anchor and steered to S.W. by compass. At 7 P.M. heard the whistle of a steamer off shore eleven A.M. anchored again.

Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Thursday Aug 29th

W. Coffin
Rises with fresh weather fresh breeze from N. E.
Five A. M. took the anchor and steered off S. W. by Compass five thirty saw a Whale lowered the Boats L. B. P. struck took him along side and cut him in finished three P. M. anchored while cutting three thirty took the anchor and steered off S. W.
by Compass. Came in thick and rainy. saw two Steamers just before dark saw a Whale but only saw him once rising did not lower.

Friday Aug 30th

Rises with strong westerly wind reefed fore sail and main sail stood on starboard, took heading from S. by E to S. W. picked up the land four miles to the eastward of Key Point. Came in thick stood in shore and five P. M. tied up to ground ice. A boat came off with one missionary and a native. Bounded to Herschel Island. took their things on board and Capt Coffin gave them a passage up.

Saturday Aug 31st

Thick and foggy until five P. M. wind N. E.
Five A. M. got under way with a light breeze and steered off to Westward nine A. M. got ashore took the anchor out and hauled her off. two P. M. got under way and steered for Herschel Island. nine P. M. wind died out and anchored just out side of the Bay. out our mail. day Closes voyage.

1895 Schooner Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in the Sunday Sept 1st

Throughout the day thick hazy weather & very Westerly wind. Not any thing of note going on through the day.

Monday Sept 2nd

Throughout the day blowing strong breeze from Westward thick and snowy all day.

Tuesday Sept 3rd

Throughout the day hazy and a very weather Westerly wind. Got some Beef Pork and Flour off from the shore. Steamer Lackney arrived.

Wednesday Sept 4th

The wind moderated more to N.W. and quite clear. Got Palatoes from the Lackney also Beef Pork and Bread from Bark Triton.

Thursday Sept 5th

Throughout the day fine weather with fresh breeze from E.S.E. by compass. Finished taking our stores on board cleared the decks and washed off. Heavy weather this P.M.

Friday Sept 6th

Throughout the day fine weather with W.M. fresh breeze from N.E. Seven thirty took the anchor (Herschel Island) and proceeded to sea steering after clearing the Island S.W. by S. This P.M. wind died out to a calm.

Antarctic Ocean Cruise Captain Master.

Saturday Sept 7th

Begins with Calm Weather some young ice making Six A.M. light breeze from the Westward, at 1.30 P.M. wind died out very light. Came in foggy two P.M. saw two Shies to the Eastward. Saw Thirty Lakmees passed us on her way out.

Sunday Sept 8th

The ship hauled to E.C. running off along the land to the Westward through scattering ice foggy through the day. Saw P.M. 10 Shies could not see to run and clear the ice. hauled into three fathoms of water and anchored. Saw ground ice at the close of the day had a heavy squall from S.W. dropped second anchor.

Monday Sept 9th

The wind died out. Came in rain. but through the day had it. Calm at P.M. light breeze from N.W.E. got under way and steered off to the Westward. Got two Boat loads of wood. Eleven thirty Anchored off Baxter Island.

Tuesday Sept 10th

Transparent the day variable winds and Calm with rains at times. Four A.M. got under way and worked to the Westward as fast as possible.

Wednesday Sept 11th

Begins with Calm weather one thirty anchored just to the Eastward of Wexmans Island.
Seven thirty light air from N.E. got under way and steered off to the Westward. At P.M. strong breeze. Came inside of the ice four P.M. Came in foggy. Anchored three fathoms of water, blowing strong. P.M. wind East.

1895 Commander Rosario on a Whaling Voyage in

Thursday Sept 12th

Wind moderated cleared up and halled, to the Southward five thirty got under way and stood to the Westward went out by Return Reef twelve thirty P.M. this P.M. wind light and halled to N.W. clearing off to S.W. by Cape twenty of Ice off shore but little in shore

Friday Sept 13th

Began with fresh breeze from the Eastward turned off to the Westward two P.M. died out Calm three P.M. light breeze from the Westward thick and foggy most of the day, off
St. Laurent. working to the Westward.

Saturday Sept 14th

Throughout the day thick and snowing strong breeze from N to N.W. this A.M. anchored two P.M. cleared up a little got under way and six P.M. anchored again some ground ice common.

Sunday Sept 15th

Throughout the day blowing strong breeze from the Westward, got under way at six A.M. and tried to work to the windward current to strong, anchored again this P.M. tried it again and anchored at four P.M. under the lee of a round ice in 4 or 4 fathoms of water

The Arctic Ocean Edwin Coffin Master.

Monday Sept 16th

The wind moderated but still heavy with fog. At 11 A.M. got under way and worked us to St Barrow came in Thule with light snow got a small lot of bone from the natives

Pt Barrow

Tuesday Sept 17th

Strong but 5th day Thick foggy weather with fresh breeze from S.W. sailing under the lee of St Barrow waiting for a change of wind. Ice coming in on the West side of the Point.

Pt Barrow

Wednesday Sept 18th

Begins with thick snow weather last part cleared up wind S.W. First Officer went to government station to find out how the ice was to the southward. Pt Barrow

Thursday Sept 19th

Begins with heavy snow weather S.W. wind
First Officer returned from the station learned that the ice was on the land as far as was let find out and no possible chance to go to the southward. Mr Rogers went off cruising with his boat got the head of a Walrus and stove his boat. a closer clear with light air Pt Barrow

Friday Sept 20th

Wind clear weather wind southward, (scrapped) and bundled our bone.

Pt Barrow

1875 Summer Record - a Whaling Voyage in the

Saturday Sept 21st

Throughout the day fine weather light Southerly and S.E. wind. Drizzle made some and bulked it. day close Calm.

Sunday Sept 22nd

Begins with fine weather and Calm. Three A.M. light breeze from the Eastward Six A.M. got under way and went on the West side as far as shooting station saw no chance to go out through the ground Ice so stood back to the north of the Point and found a hole went through and steered off to the Southward. ground Ice all along the shore back broke off and gone off shore twelve M. came in foggy. eight P.M. so thick and dark could not see to keep clear of the Ice so came to an anchor, in three fathoms of water.

Monday Sept 23rd

The fog lit up and at three thirty A.M. got under way and worked to the Eastward twelve thirty Leagues Islands ahead. found but little Ice this day. light E. or E. by N. and N.E. wind. after passing the Leagues kept on down the coast to Eastward. eight P.M.
Anchored just to the north of St. Pelcher thus ends the day.

Tuesday Sept 24th

Begins with hazy snowy weather light breeze from the Northward. four thirty A.M. took the anchor and ran down as far as Kingsright Light. five thirty hauled off shore steering S. by W. three P.M. Char-it up no Ice in sight kept off S.W. looked the Anchors on the bow lashed them and showed Chances below

Capt. (Pence). Edwin Coffin. Carter,

Wednesday Sept 25th

Through out the day fresh breeze from N.E. steering from S.W. to N.W. by Compass. Some parts of the day quite clear, but most of the time thick and snowy. Saw Brig Hidalgo Captain went on board of her. day closes

Thursday Sept 26th

Begins with fine weather and calm. Under way light breeze from the Eastward and hauled to S.W. then off to the North and West until twelve m. then hauled to the South on the Eastern tack and sail out. Saw Brig Hidalgo

Friday Sept 27th

Begins with strong S.W. gale and southerly wind this P.M. which more steady all sail out working to the Southward as much as possible

Lat $40^{\circ} 08'$ Long $165^{\circ} 20'$

Saturday Sept 28th

Throughout the day blowing fresh gale from S to S.W. this A.M. reefed main sail and in the P.M. little more moderate but still again day closes with light breeze from Eastward.

Sunday Sept 29th

The day begins with light southerly wind working up to Cape Lisburn which was in sight at day light. Middle part light breeze fine and clear. Six thirty P.M. close to the Cape standing out on the Western tack all sail out.

1895 Schooner Rosario on a whaling voyage in the

Monday Sept 30th

Throughout the day sail southerly wind, day clear weather. Four A.M. tacked close to Cape Lisburne worked to the windward in shore all day and at six ten P.M. anchored under the lee of Point Hope in five fathoms of water this P.M. ring bolt hulled out and split the rail off where the head sheets were hooked.

Tuesday Oct 1st

Throughout the day fine clear weather. First part light southerly breeze, this P.M. N.E. and some some trading. Doctor came on board had him to look at Antonio Torres who is sick yet he gave him some medicine.

Pt Hope.

Wednesday Oct 2nd

Began with light N.E. wind at twenty A.M. took the anchor at Pt Hope and sailed S.W. into A.M. Calm. This P.M. light air from N.W. started S.E. employed stowing up the hold. Reel cutting tackles down no firing further of note this day.

Thursday Oct 3rd

Throughout the day fine clear weather good breeze from N.W. to N. at two twenty A.M. came up to ice hauled her up to the Eastward and released it around, one P.M. got around the most Eastern Point and kept off stowing from S.W. to S. at dark shortened sail

Arctic Ocean Edam Coffee Master.

Friday Oct 4th

Wist and middle parts fresh breeze from N. East part wind light, passed to the southward of L'Angeles at two thirty P.M. and steered off S by E. Fine clear weather,

Saturday Oct 5th

The wind breezed up to a strong gale and hauled to N.E. nine thirty A.M. anchored under the lee of Indian Point and done some trading with the natives sold two Boats and some provisions. Three P.M. took the anchor and steered S.E. W. Ruffs in four sail and bonet out of square sail. Nothing further of note this day.

Sunday Oct 6th

Begins with strong N.E. gale steering S by W and S by E nine A.M. wind hauled more to the Eastward in square sail. Let Gobs and main sail. This P.M. fine weather all sail out.

Lat 61° 54' N.

Long 173° 07' W.

Monday Oct 7th

Begins with light Easterly wind hazy and light rain middle part clearer. East part wind N.E. and freshened up steering from S by W to S by E. Employed eskimoes in the davits from two Bow Boats and washed off,

Lat 60° 51' N.

1895 Schooner Rosario passage from Arctic Ocean to

Tuesday Oct 8th

First part fine weather light northerly and N.E. wind steering S by E and S by E. Twelve miles hauled to Eastward and breezed up had a light fall of rain. Later on cleared up and more moderate steering S by E & E.

Wednesday Oct 9th

Began with light northerly and N.E. wind steering S by E & E and S.S.E. Showers of rain through the day Six P.M. hauled to the Eastward a point steering S.E. by S. and wind hauled to N.W. this P.M. took in the cutting stags and davits.

Thursday Oct 10th

Throughout the day light breezes from N to N.E. and Calms steering S by E and S.S.E.

Lat 54. 29' N Long 172. 40 W.

Friday Oct 11th

The wind breezed up from the Eastward and then a fresh gale steering S.E. and S by E Twelve m. saw no land, for Islands this P.M. passed out of the Bering Sea through Seventy Two Pass wind hauled to N.E. in 7 by 7 and double reefed main sail. This a.m. sent Crows out down

Through the 72 Pass
7 days from Borneo

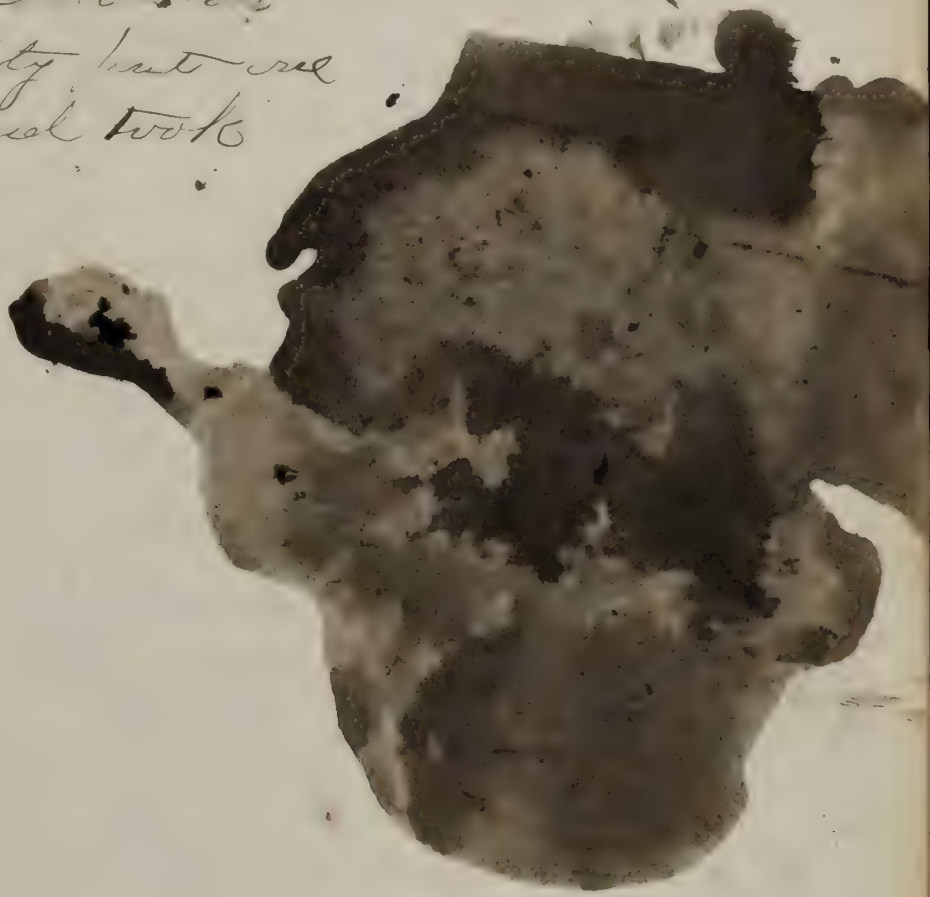

San Francisco Edwin Coffin Master,

Saturday Oct 12th

Blowing a heavy gale from S. to N.E.
 & turning from S.E. to E. Fair & m. put me reef in the Rail. Fair & m. but we more reef in and took in the

Lat 49° 29' N.
 Long 69° 47' W.

1895 Schooner Rosario on the passage from Costa Rica

Sunday Oct 13th

Rising with strong breeze from the Northward & turning S.E. under double reef Fore Sail. at 6 a.m. halled up S.E. and set double reef main Sail and Jib. The wind moderated into 6 a.m. set all Sail steering E by S. day closes calm.

Monday Oct 14th

The wind breezed up from S.W. turning E by S. came in raining. at 8 a.m. the wind halled to the Northward set square Sail. steering E.

Lat 46.40 N Long 163.57 W.

Tuesday Oct 15th

Rising with fine weather West wind and from that halled to S.W. until 5 p.m. sailed to S.E. Course East strong breeze, reef in main Sail and in fly Jib. later put a reef in Fore Sail and close reefed main Sail and in Jib. and steved on Southern tack until ten p.m. then steved to Eastward turning Course E 1/2 S.

Lat 46.25 N Long 159.43 W.

Wednesday Oct 16th

The wind got steady and set all Sail steering E 1/2 S. at 10 a.m. wind light halled up E by S wind to the Southward. day closes calm.

Lat 46.4 N Long 156.53 W.

To San Francisco Edwin Coffin Master,

Thursday Oct 17th

Remains with calm ten thirty light breeze from northward steering E by N. this P.M. wind N.W. all sail out.

Lat 45.49 N Long 155.40 W.

Friday Oct 18th

Throughout the day Westerly wind steering E by N and E by S. this A.M. fixed up the fore sail and cleats masts from which give out. this P.M. took Bore up and put it to work, day closes with fine weather wind inclined to Southward

Lat 44.30 N Long 152.49 W.

Saturday Oct 19th

Remains with fine weather wind hauled to the Southward and breezed up strong.
steering E by S, ten thirty wind hauled to S.E. bore which and hauled to Southward this P.M. strong breeze, in jib single reef fore sail double reef main sail 3. washed our bore this A.M.

Lat 44.10 N Long 150.10 W.

Sunday Oct 20th

Remains with fresh gale from E by S.E. this P.M. moderated and hauled to N.E. came in rainy. eleven P.M. shifted to S.W. blowing a gale in main sail and jib and close reef fore sail left off steering from E to N.W.E.
moderated to light breeze

Lat 43.30 N Long 150.48 W.

1895 Schooner Kasaris on passage from Cretto Ocean

Sunday Oct 31st

Begins with heavy gale wind from S.W. to S. turning N. & E. under double reef fore sail and fore stay sail. This P.M. moderated but did not ease reef main sail steering E by S & N. Not any thing further of note this day.

Lat 43.33 N Long 148.31 W.

Sunday Oct 31st

Throughout the day hazy weather with strong breeze from S.W. and turning E & N and E. Reef in fore sail and main sail. Gby jib in. Eleven P.M. blowing heavy luffed too under double reef fore sail thus ends the day.

No Observations.

Wednesday Oct 30th

The wind moderated and four A.M. kept off turning E & S. S.W. wind. had fine weather and a good breeze. Gby jib in and repaired it. day closes calm

Lat 48.52 N Long 142.27 W

Thursday Oct 24th

Begins with hazy weather and calm. twelve. Light air from N.E. came in rainy variable winds most of the day. Six P.M. in light sails. one reef in main sail. Leaked spars today. Last part heavy rain in main sail and jib laying under double reef fore sail and stay sail wind hulled to south. Blowing fresh to San Francisco Edwin Coffin Master.

Friday Oct 25th

The wind moderated gave us a hot main sail and jib and flurried East with a cut reef in fore sail this P.M. all sail out wind light steering E & S.

Lat 43° 10' N Long 139° 8' W.

Saturday Oct 26th

The wind halled to Westward steering E by S.
This A.M. took account of stock in the hole finished scraping wharves got washed bone out dried and bundled, it got grade bone out and put it to soak

Sunday Oct 27th

Throughout the day fine weather southerly
wind heading from E by S to E N all sail out. washed dried and bundled the grade.
Bone 1492 lbs. not any thing further of note this day.

Lat 42° 35' N Long 135° 55' W

Monday Oct 28th

Throughout the day fine weather with fresh breeze from the eastward, heading from E by S to E & N. Employed washing but not any thing further of note this day

Lat 42° 8' N Long 132° 21' W.

1895 Schooner Rosario on passage from Arica

Tuesday Oct 29th

Throughout the day fine weather light
Saut. norly wind heading from E by S to E by S Saw two seals steering to the northward took some medicine weighed it 19 lbs marked it and stowed it back again. not any thing
further of note this day.

Wednesday Oct 30th

Begins with good weather Saut. norly wind heading from E by S to E. S. Took down cutting instruments got up skins to dry and done other small jobs. And weighed off fine P. M. wind shifted to E by S and then it died out calm the crew refused to wash the horse Carter so did not wash it.

Lat 40. 4 1/2 Long 121. 5 1/2 W.

Thursday Oct 31st

The wind shifted to the Westward steering
E. S. E. wind light this P. M. freshened up some and shifted to N. W. employed in general ships duty. nothing further of note this day

Lat 39. 4 1/2 Long 126. 20 W.

Come to San Francisco Edmund Coffin Master.

Friday Nov 1st

Throughout the day fine weather fresh breeze from N. W. steering off E. S. E. sent Chandel and got Anchors off bar. and washed off. Six P.M. saw Pt Reyes light belled up E & S also saw Garalona light. one sail in sight.

Lat 38. 31' N Long. 122. 24 W

Saturday Nov 2nd

Begins with Calm and Duggery Laying off the Bar at San Francisco. Ten P.M. breeze from N. W. kept off and steered for the head and twelve thirty Anchored in San Francisco thirty fathoms off Channel and

Thus ends the voyage

1894 June. The Boats went down for Whales to the Eastward 1894 1897

Bread Started

Inch 31 st	one cask containing	832 lbs.
June 18 th	" " "	847
Sept 20 th	" " "	830 "
Dec 11 th	" " "	957 "
Feb 21 st	" " "	no cask
April 25 th	" " "	875
		1791

June 18th opened fires of Pickles
 " " " " " Hams

Flour started

March 27th out for use 16 lbs. Cold Flour 11 lbs 5th new?
April 25th Cask containing 18 lbs Cold Flour
May 28th " " 21 " New Flour
June 28th " " 30 " " "
July 21st " " 28 " " "
Jan 21st 1895. " " 14 " Crown Mill from 1892.
Feb 26th " " 23 lbs
March 20th " " 31 "
May 10th 2 Casks 16 and 22 lbs 38 " 1708

Butter started

March 27th me Key April 28th me Key.
May 28th " " June 20th " July 21st " " July 20th "
Sept 16th " " "
Nov 23rd " " "
Jan 4 1895 " "
Feb 9th " "

Prof Started

March 27 th	one Surco	July 12 th	one Ark.
April 13 th	" "	" 16 th	one Surco
" 28 th	" "	Aug 11 th	" "
May 11 th	" "	Sept 17 th	" "
" 29 th	" "	" 22 nd	" "
June 18 th	" Borneo
" 29 th	" "
July 5 th	" "
July 28 th	" "
Aug 14 th	" "
Aug 22 nd	" "
Sept 3 rd	" "
" 9 th	" "
" 28 th	" "
Oct 12 th	" "
" 28 th	" "
Nov 2 nd	" Surco
" 11 th	" "
Dec 7 th	" Ark
" 25 th	" "
Jan 18 th	" "
Jan 21 st	" "
Feb 6 th	" "
Feb 18 th	" "
" 28 th	" "
March 11 th	" "
March 25 th	" "
April 18 th	" "
" 25 th	" "
May 8 th	" "
" 28 th	" "
June 3 rd	" "
" 11 th	" "
" 15 th	" "
" 29 th	" "

Pork Started

one Turco

March 2 nd	"	"
April 13 th	"	"
May 11 th	"	"
June 9 th	"	"
July 5 th	"	"
Aug 14 th	"	Bob
Sept 2 nd	"	"
Sept 1 st	"	"
" 28 th	"	"
Oct 13 th	"	"
Nov 8 th	"	"
" 20 th	"	"
Dec 1 st	"	"
" 20 th	"	"
Jan 1 st 1895	"	"
Feb 5 th	"	"
" 28 th	"	"
March 15 th	"	"
" 30 th	"	"
April 13 th	"	"
" 25 th	"	"
May 8 th	"	"
May 31 st	"	"
June 18 th	"	"
July 6 th	"	"
" 28 th	"	"
Aug 9 th	"	"
" 30 th	"	"
Oct 7 th	"	"

11th 2nd " 1 year started one Barrel
 May 20th " " 63 days
 July 17th " " 47 "
 Oct 6 " " 81 "
 Jan 3rd " " 87 "
 Apr 2nd " " 89 "
 May 14th " "

Sugar started
 April 29th $\frac{1}{2}$ Barrel
 June 14th $\frac{1}{2}$ " old sugar
 July 29th $\frac{1}{2}$ " " " Oct 6th $\frac{1}{2}$ " " " Nov 17th $\frac{1}{2}$ " " new Dec 24th $\frac{1}{2}$ " " " Feb 9th $\frac{1}{2}$ " " " April 1st $\frac{1}{2}$ " " " 32

13.77
13 S
17 S

